BAINBRIDGE CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

As you look through the "Echo" you will probably immediately note that it is different from past "Echos." You will remark on an increase in the amount of pictures and a decrease in the amount of text. We Seniors like all seniors of the past, felt that we would like a somewhat different yearbook. Our feelings can be summed up in an old proverb, "One picture is worth a thousand words," and a thousand pictures could not adequately express our hope that you will enjoy the "Echo" of 1951.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1951, do dedicate this "Echo" to MISS ANNA NAYLOR for giving us our first step toward education in Bainbridge Central High School.

Our principal
F. J. CASEY

"When I was one-and-twenty"

"Don't cry, you're a big girl!"

"Timber!"

"At First, the Infant . . ."

Of all the seven ages of man, perhaps the two most difficult to recognize in a faculty are those of infancy and youth. Not that a teacher has any trouble remembering his or her own lost youth – it is the student body which understandably enough, cannot seem to visualize the phenomenon. The average student is wont to regard his teacher as something not born, but issued – at the peak of moral and intellectual perfection, a perfection somewhat marred by his lack of understanding of the student and an increasing tendency toward crabiness.

It is quite often touching to observe the lengths a considerate student will go to insulate his teacher from the rude facts of academic life. He may not attempt to show that a spit ball is an act of God, but he will waste a lot of time trying to explain that his finger slipped. Or he will, if encouraged slightly, go into rather elaborate detail as to why homework isn't done. He isn't merely trying to protect himself; he wants teacher to be happy about it too.

Then there is the occasional disturbance which arises in the back corner of the study hall. The teacher says in his best voice of doom, "Tommy!" a resurrected memory answers, "What?" That is Tommy, and he knows darned well "What." This is a rhetorical question and also pure theater at its most conventional.

A thousand light bulbs have blinked above a thousand shining faces as inspiration has come to the aid of the harassed scholar. With tricks and stratagems, he battles to keep his teacher innocent, but he forgets – all man passes through seven ages, and even his teacher was young – once.

"Early reflections on referees and umpires."

"Two and two makes perfect."

"Won't you come with me Lucille . . .?"

Mr. Novok – I am thinking of having my voice cultivated.

Miss Valachovic – I would recommend having it plowed under.

Mr. Blythe – If I've talked too long, it's because I forgot my watch and there's no clock in this hall.

Voice in back – There's a calendar on the wall behind you.

We must have something new and different

The three horsemen and a pony.

“When our hearts were young and gay”

Here you see our typists. Without their flying fingers this “ECHO” should not have been possible.

We had one of those dignified Senior parties.

“We Seniors”

“A boy’s will is the wind’s will,
 And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts.”
Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

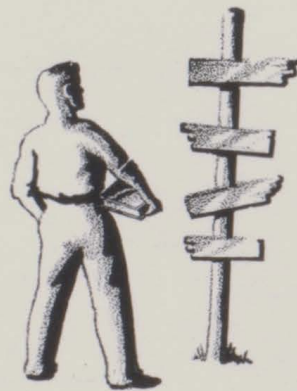

(1) Cutie! (2) She’s shy! (3) Tired? (4) Who is it? (5) Dimples! (6) Where is he? (7) Warm day? (8) Dead-eye, our thailor. (9) She’s changed hasn’t she? (10) Is it good! (11) Small tub! (12) Dainty! (13) Our athlete! (14) Some puss! (15) Nice dog! (16) It’s a big world! (17) Coy! (18) Innocent? (19) Pin-up, so young? (20) A little gentleman! (21) What a doll? (22) Tipsy? (23) Sad? These two pictures are symbols of our most important concession of the fall. The grinning countenance at the right is that of Barbara Dodge. At the left is the camera-shy advisor, Miss Valachovic.

The sophomore class has a great variety of opinions on their rings.

Can you imagine, these are sophomore "girls"?

Officers: ROGER LORD, President; RICHARD HURLBERT, Vice President; DOUGLAS ANDREWS, Treasurer; FAY BOYD, Secretary.

ACTIVITIES

"Single file, Please!" This seems to be the motto of the traffic squad. In this picture Gunther Schoen ably keeps the teeming millions in line.

Officers: MARIE ELDER, President; LINDA SALZBERG, Vice President; PAULINE PALMER, Secretary; PAT ALLEN, Treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

ROW ONE: Miss Smith, G. Dodge, C. Searles, P. Allen, P. Palmer, M. Elder, Mrs. Cheesbro. ROW TWO: G. Schoen, J. Landre, P. Landre, J. Armstrong, L. Salzberg, D. Wakeman. ROW THREE: E. Shelton, R. Nilec, D. Wakeman, R. Lee, C. Parker, C. Knowlton, R. Bradshaw.

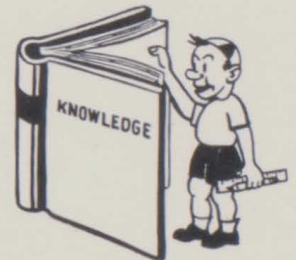

ROW I: T. Lee, P. Palmer, D. Hoyt, H. Collins, J. Parker, C. Searles, M. Stanton, M. Elder. ROW II: Mr. Blythe, Mr. Black.

HONOR SOCIETY

Officers: JANET PARKER, President; MARIE ELDER, Vice President; MARILYN STANTON, Secretary.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Officers: MARIE ELDER, President; THOMAS LEE, President; LINDA SALZBERG, Secretary; HUGH COLLINS, Treasurer.

The operetta, H. M. S. Pinafore, was put on by the music department of B.C.H.S. under the able direction of Mr. Novak. However, the dramatics club was an element in the success of the production.

Mrs. Vicary and Janet seem to be a bit disgusted with Mr. Thomas Lee. Peg had so much trouble being mad at Alaric, the nice quiet Englishman.

The most important production of the dramatics club is the Senior play. Here are a few oft' spoken words from our dramatics teacher, "All right you kids, I want you to listen and get this!"

The dramatics club is not all work. After all productions our efforts are rewarded by a party. In this picture we are rehashing the operetta, "H.M.S. Pinafore."

ROW I: R. Fletcher, R. Hoyt, D. Pixley, R. Gerg, D. Wakeman, H. Scholz, A. Macpherson. ROW II: Mr. Coe, D. Lee, W. Giles, R. Kingsley, C. Day, J. Mills, D. Tobey, C. Knowlton, C. Streigler, W. Carpenter, J. Leonard, E. O'Neil, E. Tobey.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

This is one of the prize bulls of the vicinity. It is the great aspiration of almost all the F. F.A. boys to raise a bull such as this.

Officers: DOUGLAS WAKEMAN, President; DOUGLAS LEE, Vice President; CARL KNOWLTON, Secretary; CORKY STRIEGLER, Treasurer.

At our homemaking initiation we tried to keep our victims well fed. We did our best to feed them but they just didn't seem to be hungry.

We tried to keep the initiation clean but due to circumstances beyond our control somebody stepped in the mud.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Officers: ELIZABETH CORBIN, President;
 NORA DRACHLER, Vice President; HELEN FOLDY, Secretary; MARILYN PRICE, Treasurer.

ROW 1: M. Bradley, H. Cawley, J. Scheidegger, M. Price, N. Drachler, E. Corbin, H. Foldy, J. Michel, P. Shearer, D. Gerg. ROW 2: C. Scheidegger, R. Parsons, B. Beckwith, F. Manwarren, M. Butts, T. Giles, N. Sanford, M. Miller, D. Parker, J. Delello. ROW 3: J. MacPherson, F. Engel, G. Mertz, R. Schoen, P. Freidenstine, D. Foulds, L. Severson, C. Kirkland, M. Michel, V. Parsons. ROW 4: Mrs. Corbin, W. Herron, V. Knapp, M. Sherman, M. Miner, D. Pixley, D. Jones, M. Coon, B. Parsons.

B. Dodge, G. Dodge, B. Stiles, L. Severson, E. McGinnis, P. Allen, M. Jones, S. Elder, F. Boyd, D. Alford, J. Parsons, D. Hoyt, M. Eldred, N. Cheesbro, I. Flyzik, G. Mertz, J. Parker, E. Youngs, L. Kingsley, Faculty Advisor – Miss Smith.

Officers: JANET PARKER, Editor; EILEEN YOUNGS, Assistant Editor.

PRESS CLUB

“Tell me your life’s history, Mr. Novak!”
These were the words of Josie Strasnisak when interviewing Mr. Novak.

Come now girls it isn’t spring yet and remember you have a deadline to meet every Friday.

LIBRARY CLUB

Under the enthusiastic leadership of its four officers, one behind the camera and three behind the desk, the library club is having one of its best years.

This is a sample of Mrs. Benjamin's library club in action.

SEATED: A. Mertz, N. Sanford, C. Kirkland, M. Miller, Mrs. Benjamin, B. Beckwith, M. Pickwick, E. Youngs, M. Jones. STANDING: M. Stanton, D. Pixley, P. Allen, R. Parsons, D. Foulds.

BAND

Boom! Boom! . . . the big bass drum . . . the band marching on the tennis courts . . . eager faces peering from homeroom windows to watch the band go through its paces . . . small children squealing with glee to see the marchers . . . Mr. Lambert stepping out smartly in front to show how it's done . . . cold weather and then rehearsals in the gym with no distractions or interruptions (we hope!) . . . days of practice, months of practice, . . . finally the annual concert and the longed-for applause and acceptance of friends and families . . . hard work but fun – well worth our efforts – that's what BAND means!!!

CHORUS

High note . . . low note . . . that's chorus . . . music-conscious students busily watching a film on voice training – Mr. Novak singing a solo . . . a successful operetta, starring a crew of lusty sailors and sweet-voiced demoiselles . . . preparation for future concerts . . . Chorus – basses, sopranos, sharps or flats, high spirits and the will to sing!

ORCHESTRA

Tap . . . Tap . . . Tap – the rap of a baton on a music stand . . . “Let's take it again from the repeat” . . . again and again, first the violins, then the cellos, vibrating throughout the room . . . a discordant note and then, but finally near perfection and harmony . . . Afton, Deposit, and Bainbridge combining orchestras for a concert, a concert so well received and popular that it is to become an annual event – small, select, and successful – orchestra is just that!

WRESTLING 1950-51

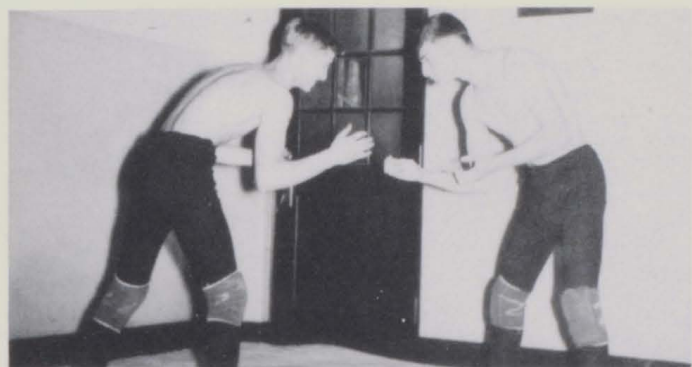

L. Warren, C. Knowlton, B. Williams, E. Carlin, R. Palmer, L. Owens, E. Craver, R. Hurlburt, R. Smith, R. Lee, L. Daly, G. Schoen. Absent: B. Simmonds, J. Engle.

Dick Hurlburt doesn't seem very happy about taking the bottom position. Who would, when wrestling Leonard Owens?

Both Gene and Bob have had plenty of experience. They have put this experience into use and come up with excellent records this year.

The wrestling mat is no place to take a nap, Leal! However, Leal makes Captain Dick Lee work for that pin.

Gunther Schoen has become one of B.C.H.S.'s top wrestlers. Through hard work and training, both Gunther and Dick have risen to the top of the "Hall of Fame" at B.C.H.S.

TRACK 1950

Due to the lack of a track team, a group of boys were chosen from the gym classes to represent Bainbridge at the track tournament in Afton. Corky Landre, Doug Lee, David Corbin and Jack Terry are the members of our winning relay team.

Our cheerleaders busily absorbed in watching the game at Chenango Forks. Does anyone know what down it is?

Cheerleaders

JAYVEES, KNEELING: F. Hoyt, M. Coon, L. Dibble, B. Parsons, N. Cheesbro, M. Price. VARSITY, STANDING: I. Flyzik, C. Searles, L. Dibble, H. Foldy, J. Parker, J. Strasnicsak.

GIRL'S SPORTS' CLUB

ROW ONE: H. Cawley, N. Cheesbro, J. Parker, N. Roscoe, D. Hoyt, D. Gerg, G. Dodge, L. Dibble, M. Bradley, J. Strasniczak. ROW TWO: C. Michel, C. Youngs, D. Alford, F. Engel, J. Michel, E. Corbin, B. Searles. ROW FOUR: B. Newman, B. King, M. Sherman, L. Dibble, I. Flyzik, L. Salzberg, M. Eldred, B. Bennet, J. Mitchel, D. Foulds, Mrs. Dunne, Advisor.

The girls' soccer team went to the "Play Day" at Afton and returned, tied for first place.

This is what is commonly deemed "The Bench."

Mr. Vicary: "Catsy, your essay, 'A Dog,' is word for word the same as Helen's!"

Catsy: "Yes, Teacher, I know. It's about the same dog."

Mr. King: "This is the fifth time this week that you've been late and have had to stay after school. Now, what have you to say for yourself?"

Dick Hoyt: (In a timid little voice), "I'm glad it's Friday, Sir."

The night before . . .

The minute before . . .

Could this be our coach? But what person, upon seeing the original hat, couldn't have guessed that?

"The small extent upon which we 'Hopefuls' sit." - "The Bench."

The Four Horsemen of B.C.H.S.

Somebody missed! Shall we say it was Sidney?

The Senior Alphabet

- A . . . Our usual marks – AHM!
- B . . . The Blythes – God's gift to the Seniors.
- C . . . Classmates – Never to be forgotten.
- D . . . Disaster – A sure thing for Seniors around exam time.
- E . . . Echo – That which we hope to leave in these halls.
- F . . . Famous – We'll come back to see old B.C.H.S. when we are.
- G . . . Graduation – Will we ever reach it?
- H . . . Halls – Which will be empty without us.
- I . . . What a Senior never says when a teacher asks, "Who did it?"
- J . . . Jokesters – Of which our class has many.
- K . . . Ketchup – What the teachers say because we are always behind in our work.
- L . . . Lines – The ones the Senior play cast never forgot.
- M . . . Minutes – Which tick by very slowly when one is watching the clock.
- N . . . Naps – Psychological rest periods taken during classes.
- O . . . Oh! – "Them school days is gone forever."
- P . . . Prof. Casey – Who should receive a medal for seeing us through these years.
- Q . . . Quotations – Which we learn but will we ever use them?
- R . . . Rings – Class first – then engagement.
- S . . . Senior trip – Oh Boy!
- T . . . Teachers – Which seriously we will never forget.
- U . . . Ups and downs of our friends.
- V . . . Vacation – A bright spot in a dark cloud.
- W . . . Wool – We can pull the wool over anybody's eyes and we have.
- X . . . A common expression of Mr. Blythe's.
- Y . . . Ye – Old School House, that is, until the new addition is built.
- Z . . . Zero – An unfamiliar figure on our report cards, we are proud to say, thus far . . . Give us time.

Prof. Casey – "Adolescent, are you not endeavoring to induce members of the finny tribe to engulf into their denticulated mouths a barbed hook upon which is placed a dainty allurement?"

Roger Fletcher – "Naw, I'm Fishin!"

WHY THE PARLOR LAMP WENT OUT

In the parlor there were three---
She, the parlor lamp and he;
Two is company, no doubt--
And so the little lamp went out.

SENIOR WILL

We, the class of 1951, being of sound mind and body upon our departure from this great institution of learning do hereby bequeath to those we leave behind, the following:

- John Armstrong . . . leaves his sideburns and whiskers to Marge.
Marilyn Coon . . . leaves her appetite to Virginia Parsons.
Hugh Collins . . . leaves 4 of his 5 lab periods to Jimmy Singmaster.
Josephine Delello . . . leaves all of her English books to Mr. Vicary.
Leal Daly . . . leaves his bass voice to Wesley Carpenter.
Nora Drachler . . . leaves her ability to get along with people easily to Jo-z.
Marie Elder . . . leaves her giggles to Shirley Jones.
Roger Fletcher . . . leaves his trouble with coach to anyone who wants it.
Helen Foldy . . . leaves her unstudious nature to Jerry Black.
Richard Gerg . . . My fishing equipment to someone who loves it as much as I do.
Dorothy Jones . . . leaves her ability to keep quiet to Francine Payne.
Tommy Lee . . . leaves his football T-shirt to coach.
Adelbert MacPherson . . . leaves his car to anyone who will take care of it.
Freida Manwarren . . . leaves her homemaking ability to Mr. Dunne.
Joan Michel . . . leaves her history review books to Mr. Dunne.
Mary Miner . . . leaves her ability to go steady to Florence Engel.
Ann Niles . . . leaves nothing to anybody because she is taking everything that she has with her.
Janet Parker . . . leaves her love of acting to Marge.
Betty Parsons . . . leaves her bashfulness to Irene Flyzik.
Marilyn Price . . . leaves 4 years of art to Eleanor Michel.
Linda Salzberg . . . leaves her headaches and joys of being editor of the "echo" to next year's "Echo" editor.
Catsy Scheideggar . . . leaves her marks in English to anyone who can afford them.
Herman Scholz . . . My ability to argue with Mr. Coe to Jimmy Leonard.
Pat Shearer . . . leaves her hair to coach.
Marilyn Stanton . . . leaves her typing ability to Billy Williams.
Royce Stoutenberg . . . leaves his old age to some unfortunate junior.
Doug Wakeman . . . leaves his course in Ag. to his brother.
Roger Weeks . . . leaves his hair to Miss Smith.
Dick Hoyt . . . leaves his shop ability to Lyle Warren.

We, the class of 1951, wish to thank the following people for helping us to make this yearbook possible: Pat Allen and Don Pixley, for their photographs - donated to the "Echo"; the Junior assistants, Eileen Youngs and Pauline Palmer, who so willingly stood by us; Mrs. Kinney and her art department, and all the teachers who so generously gave their time. Most of all, we wish to express our appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Blythe for their patience and hard work on the 1951 "Echo."

The purpose of this yearbook is to share with you - the reader - the experiences, which have come to us, the students of Bainbridge Central High School. We sincerely hope that we have conveyed to you all the intricate details of our school life . . . the joys, the sorrows and the friendships. The memories of these shall always live within us.
