The class of 1966 humbly and reverently dedicates to you, John Homa, our 1966 Echo.

In a society devoted to surface values and stereotypes, very seldom is one individual readily distinguishable from all the others. However, B-G's own John Homa is distinguishable. Omnipresent in the lives of your associates, you have exalted yourself above the dual role as history teacher and (Jr. High) guidance counsellor to undertake a spontaneous interest in the growth and development of both B-G and her students. Your vibrant but sincere personality radiates a true warmth and concern for others.

Whether out on the football field fervently coaching our team on to victory or in the classroom arousing our stagnated minds by creating something light, bright, and sparkling, you certainly exemplify the epitome of a teacher and friend.

Senior Class of 1966.

Resting Proud in Susquehanna's Vale

We, the Seniors of 1966, are proud of the ideals and traditions omnipresent, both spiritually and physically, at B-G. In the following pages, we have attempted to create those intangible elements of glory and devotion that characterize our Alma Mater.

At the culmination of our senior year, the events of the past four years flash back in retrospect. Today, we as Seniors, find a true essence in these memories; an essence that we have neglected many times before. Contrary to both the joy and heartbreak, victory and defeat, progression and regression that we have experienced, as a class, throughout our days at B-G, the end product of self-identity was a most beneficial reward. This success that we have experienced may be attributed to the spirit and determination that our Alma Mater has instilled within us all.

Our Alma Mater has played an integral part in molding our character. Most of us have developed our own values, beliefs, ideals, and personal convictions in relation to the democratic culture of which we are an entity. As seniors, our goals and general patterns for living are becoming stabilized and more clearly visible. Conflicts in regard to our perspective toward life are slowly but progressively unfolding. We are ultimately preparing for an advancement as a unique individual into a highly technological society. Again, our Alma Mater has granted us the prerogative to become individuals of infinite value. And we are.

When we refer to the "hallowed memories" and "noble halls", we are talking seriously and with true respect of B-G. These phrases should not be considered trite or commonplace; in essence, they are very meaningful. The "hallowed memories" and "noble halls" represent the idealistic traditions of our Alma Mater. B-G has taught her offspring the significance of democracy through her unremitting display of friendliness and brotherhood.

As the Class of 1966 forms their recessional at the graduation exercise and slowly fades away, a new group will join the "multitudes in the valley of decision." Our Alma Mater has led us this far; now we will lead ourselves the rest of the way alone.

EDWARD R. ANDREWS
District Principal

The work and long hours necessary for perfect precision and harmony are indeed personified by Bainbridge-Guilford's head man—Mr. Edward Andrews. His active and personal interest in all our activities puts him in the hearts of all of us.

We are all indebted to him for instilling in us the appreciation for perfection and the inspiration to fully achieve our future goals. His unselfish devotion to us and to our school is an attribute which belongs to only the greatest and best of men.

The Bobcat football team ended the season with a 3-4 record, but there is a lot to be said for the team members. Emmett Taylor and Will Davis put B-G into the end zone many times. Although the team had a 3-3 league record, they were in the thick of the Pioneer race until the next to the last game.

B-G Grapplers

UNCLE!

Once again we would like to pay tribute to the "grapplers" of B-G High.

Placing third in our league, our wrestlers have done a terrific job of upholding our goals of good sportsmanship and educational recreation.

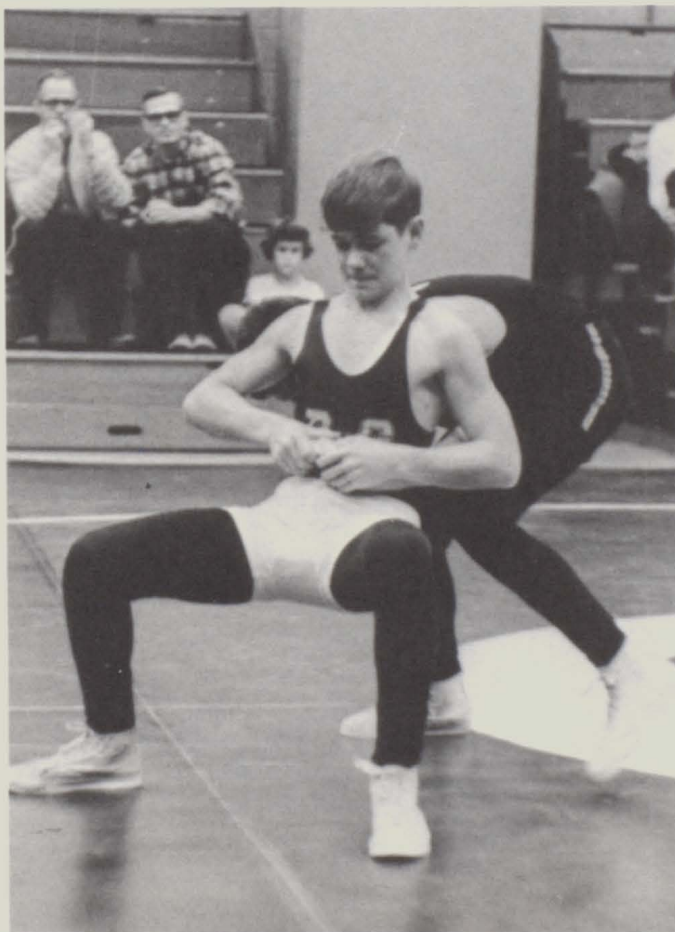

We would like to give special recognition to our senior wrestlers John Payne, Joe Ellis, Ed Gifford, Kirk Murphy and Bill Smith, all of whom will be missed next season.

If our wrestlers pursue this sport with as much enthusiasm as they have shown this year, we may look forward to another year of fine wrestling.

Hey ref, this is no time for push-ups!

Jim Walton fights for an escape.

B-G Bobkittens

Certainly, the season of '66 has added valuable experience for our up and coming J. V. players. Under Coach Armstrong's direction these boys proved to be a valuable asset to B-G's athletic program.

Through their diligence, team unity, and enthusiasm, they succeeded in giving the spectators a fine exhibition of basketball at its best.

In the Sticks with '66

"Boy, he shore is purdy!"

After a combination of long hours of rehearsing and genuine enjoyment, the Class of '66 presented "Hillbilly Weddin" by Le Rome Greth.

Directed by one of B-G's most talented faculty members, Mr. Charles James, "Hillbilly Weddin" produced some hilarious hillbilies that B-G will never forget.

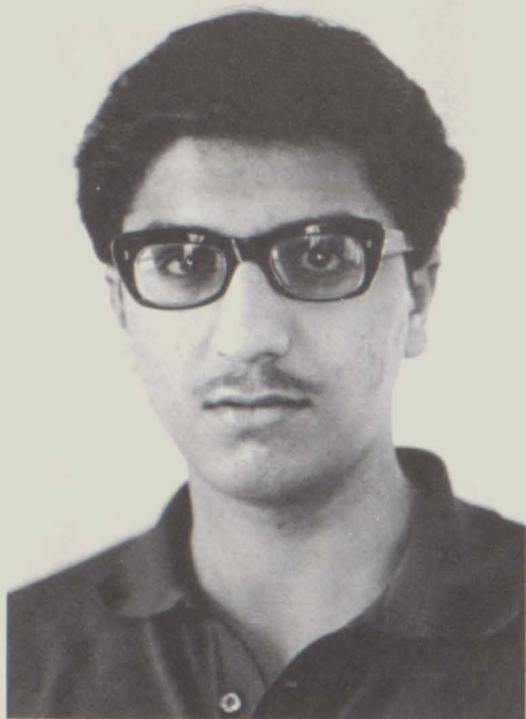

Big Ralph succumbs to stage fright.

Everyone thought it was a wig!

Munching & crunching behind the scenes.

After a long wait, B-G received its foreign rotary exchange student, Mahesh Shah. Mahesh is from the port city of Bombay, India. He is the youngest of a large family. He has two brothers and two sisters. His father owns a factory outside Bombay that manufactures electrical accessories.

Mahesh has attended a British boarding school near the Himalaya Mountains since he was nine years old. The school, Colonel Brown-Cambridge School, is compulsory for students aspiring a position in the military.

Mahesh has many varied interests, among them soccer, tennis, skating and dancing. He enjoys music and plays a German instrument called a melodica. Watching television and movies are also among his pastimes, with Westerners and detective stories being his favorites.

Welcome to B-G, Mahesh. We hope you enjoy your stay!

VUONG VAN DUC

This year B-G proudly announces the adoption of their foreign orphan, Vuong Van Duc, a native of South Viet Nam.

Duc is enrolled in the second grade at school. He has been found to have an early case of tuberculosis, but he is receiving free treatment now as a result of our Foreign Orphan Campaign. He is active, polite and enjoys talking with people.

In the struggles of his world, he does not think about his future. Our aid, as Foreign Orphan Parents, however, gives Duc a chance to dream about that future and hope that his dreams may come true, if brutal reality does not wreck the dream.

All hail the King and Queen.
