Graduation 72'

"So small, but so wise."

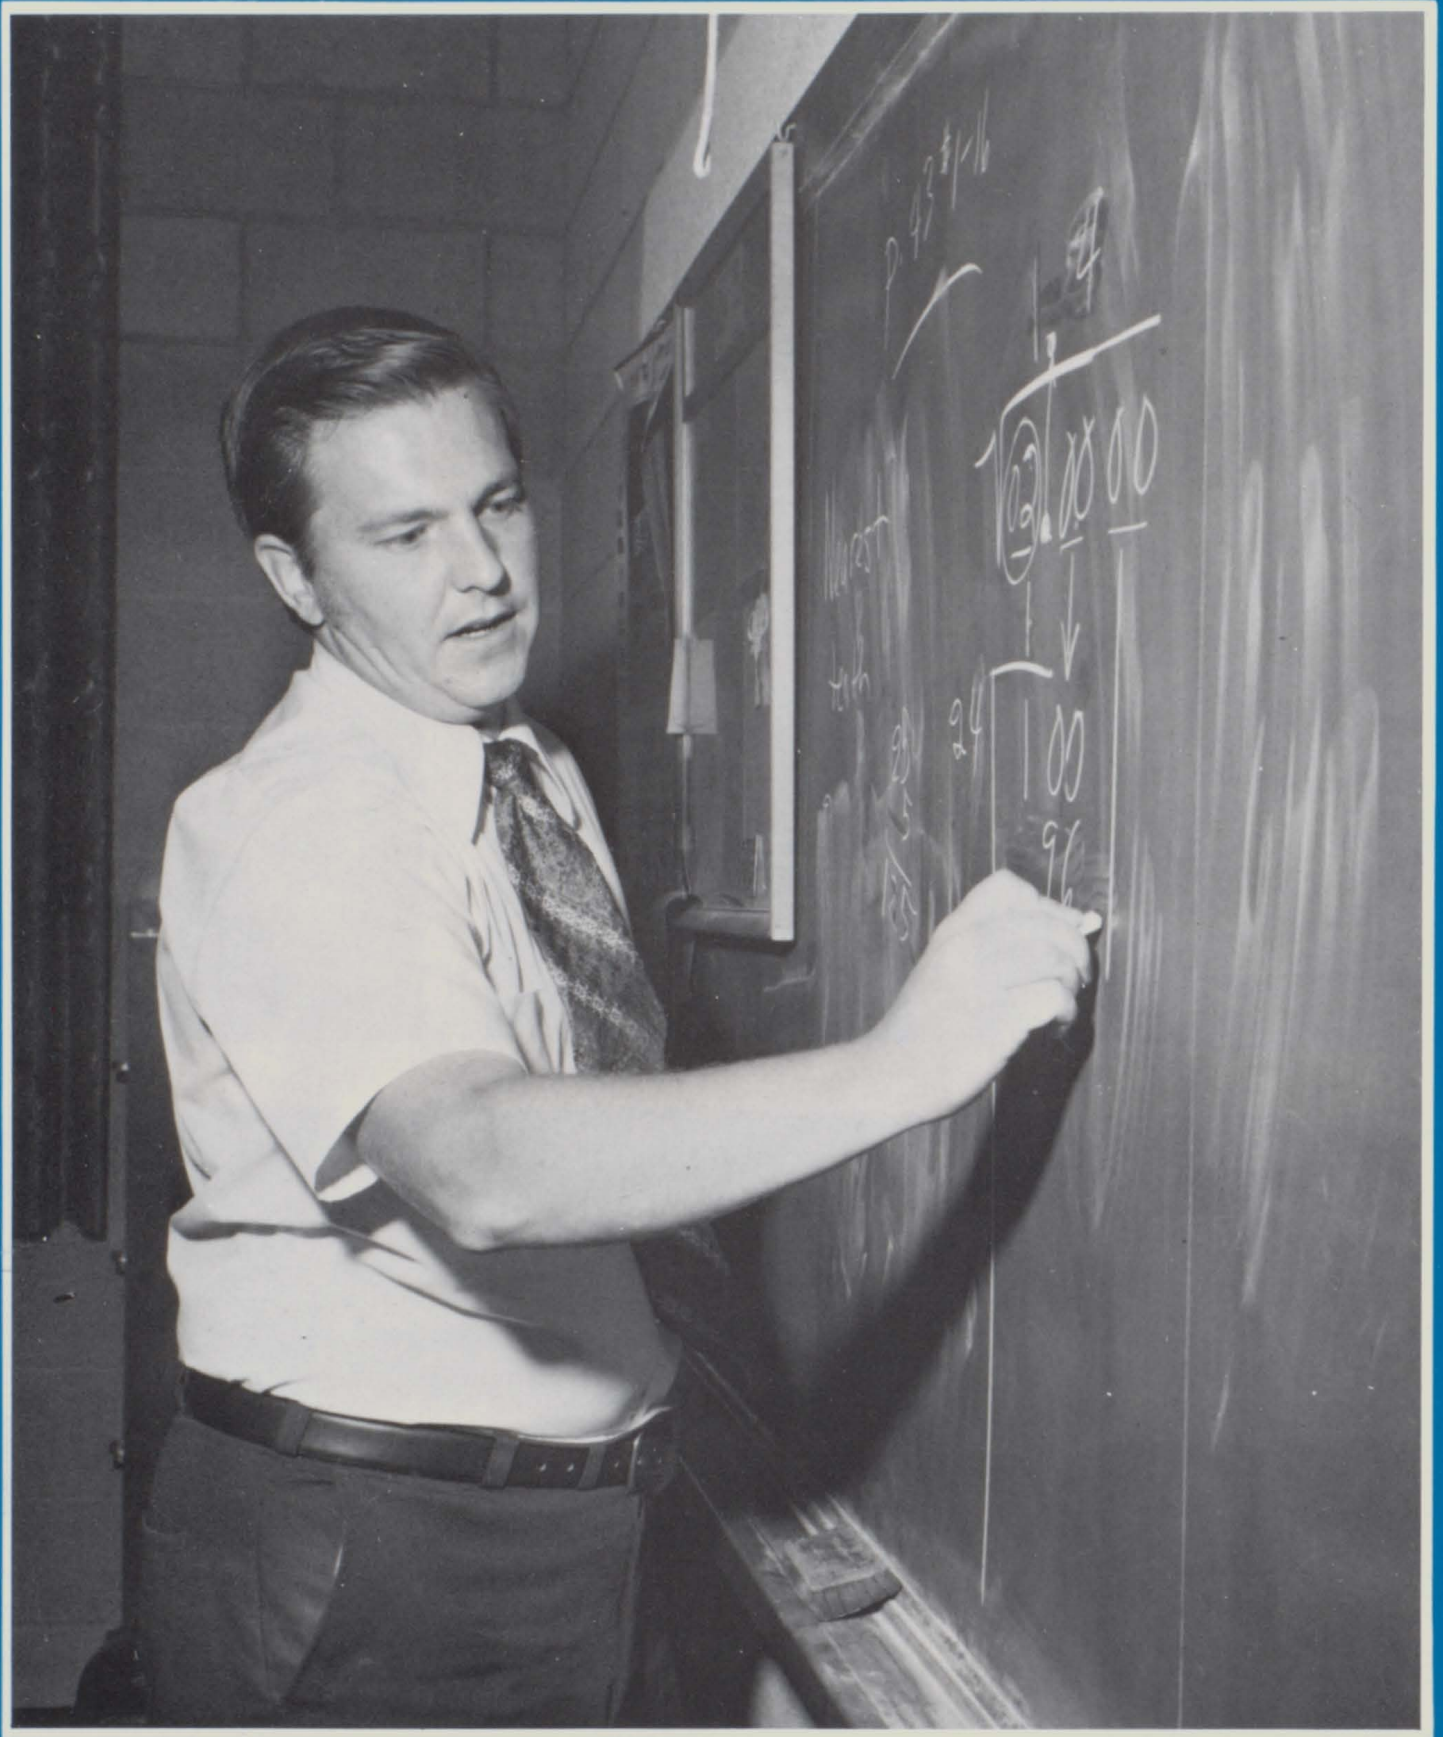

Graduation this year was held inside because of rain . . . .

As Valedictorian, Anne Hinkley said in her address: "We leave B-G High with a mixture of sadness and relief." The fresh daisies and melodious strains of the orchestra, assured that the Graduation would commence with its traditional "Pomp and Circumstance."

Dedication

THE MEN

Men are men, so they say
 We see all kinds at B-G each day.
 Some reside in Bainbridge, and some in the other place.
 But when the goin' gets tough,
 And the clothes start to get torn,
 The men that come thru - ARE GUILFORD BORN!

D. Richards
 2/9/1972

Perhaps it is this special quality that makes us, the class of '73, so proud to dedicate this yearbook to you, Mr. Richards.

The man who wrote this poem may not have been born in Guilford, yet he has all the qualities that his poem says a man should have - plus a few others. He is firm, understanding, and patient. All good teachers have these, but the special never-failing sense of humor possessed by one puts him above the others, even to the extent that we can enjoy Geometry!

"The Thursday night blahs !!!"

"Hey you guys! Better get in step because Mr. Harvey is watching you !!!"

"Hang in there, and keep on truckin"

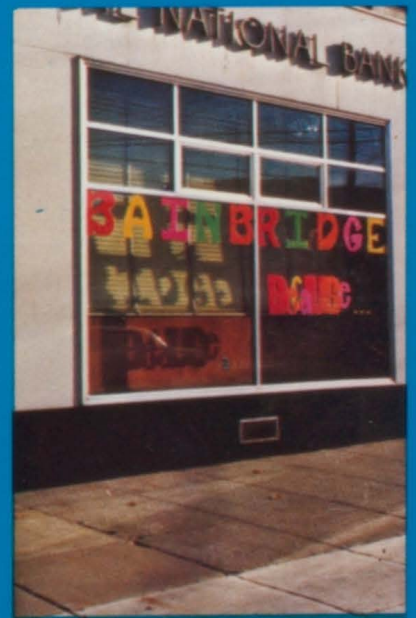

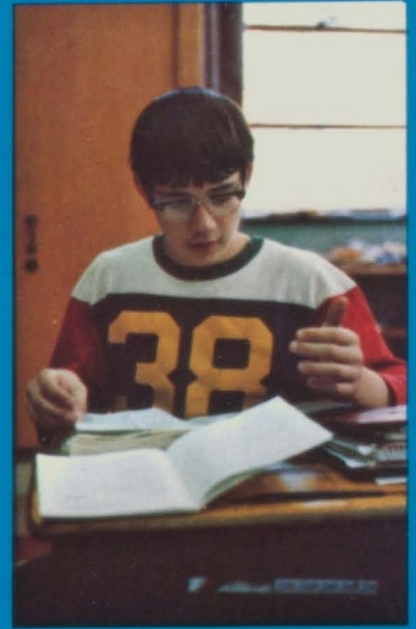

"Once again Amy's Mouth is on the move"

The track team had a good season. We had quite a few outstanding members such as; Steve Sandike-220; Dave Prouty-2 mile; Dave Boening-880; Max Linstrom-440; Bruce Crandall-High Jump. The relay team traveled to the state sectionals and placed fourth. They also broke six records during the season.

The baseball team had quite a good year also. The biggest game was certainly the double header cast over WHEN radio (Just ask B.W.). Last year the team got new uniforms. There will be many returning players and the team is looking forward to another good season.

Color Guard is constantly getting bigger and better

B-G's very own chorus line!

Captain Toot Vicary

. . . but where's the drummer?

Putting on a great show, as usual.

The B-G Color Guard.

Our faithful leader Mr. Roy Stock.

This year the B-G Blues Marching Band came in a fantastic fourth place at State Fair. It was not all that easy achieving such a high goal. They had rehearsals two times a week, and about a week and a half before State Fair they had rehearsals almost every night. These rehearsals lasted until a baby fire flie's light could be seen better than the person standing next to you. Such hard work deserves the highest of honors. Good work men (and women)!

The theme for this year's Echo is "Close-Up." It is a close-up view of everything from sport and club activities to the wierd and cute things that go on each day at B-G high school. Thanks to our talented photography staff we captured many different emotions on film.

I would like to extend thanks to a few people who also played a big part in getting this yearbook all together: Debbie Bailey, Mrs. Adams, Linda Lee - cover contest winner, Mr. David Harvey, and most of all Mr. Daniel Rice for his guidance.

We've got the Whole World in Our Hands

Hey, It's Tracy Benson! Don't think she spends all her time riding bulls under the palm trees. Tracy is spending the year in Manila in the Phillipines. In her own humble home she has a private sitting room, two personal maids, and her own door to the swimming pool. She just missed seeing the first P.O.W.'s arrive, and spends extra time tutoring the Egyptian Counsel's daughter. We hope the rest of Tracy's year will be just as much fun.

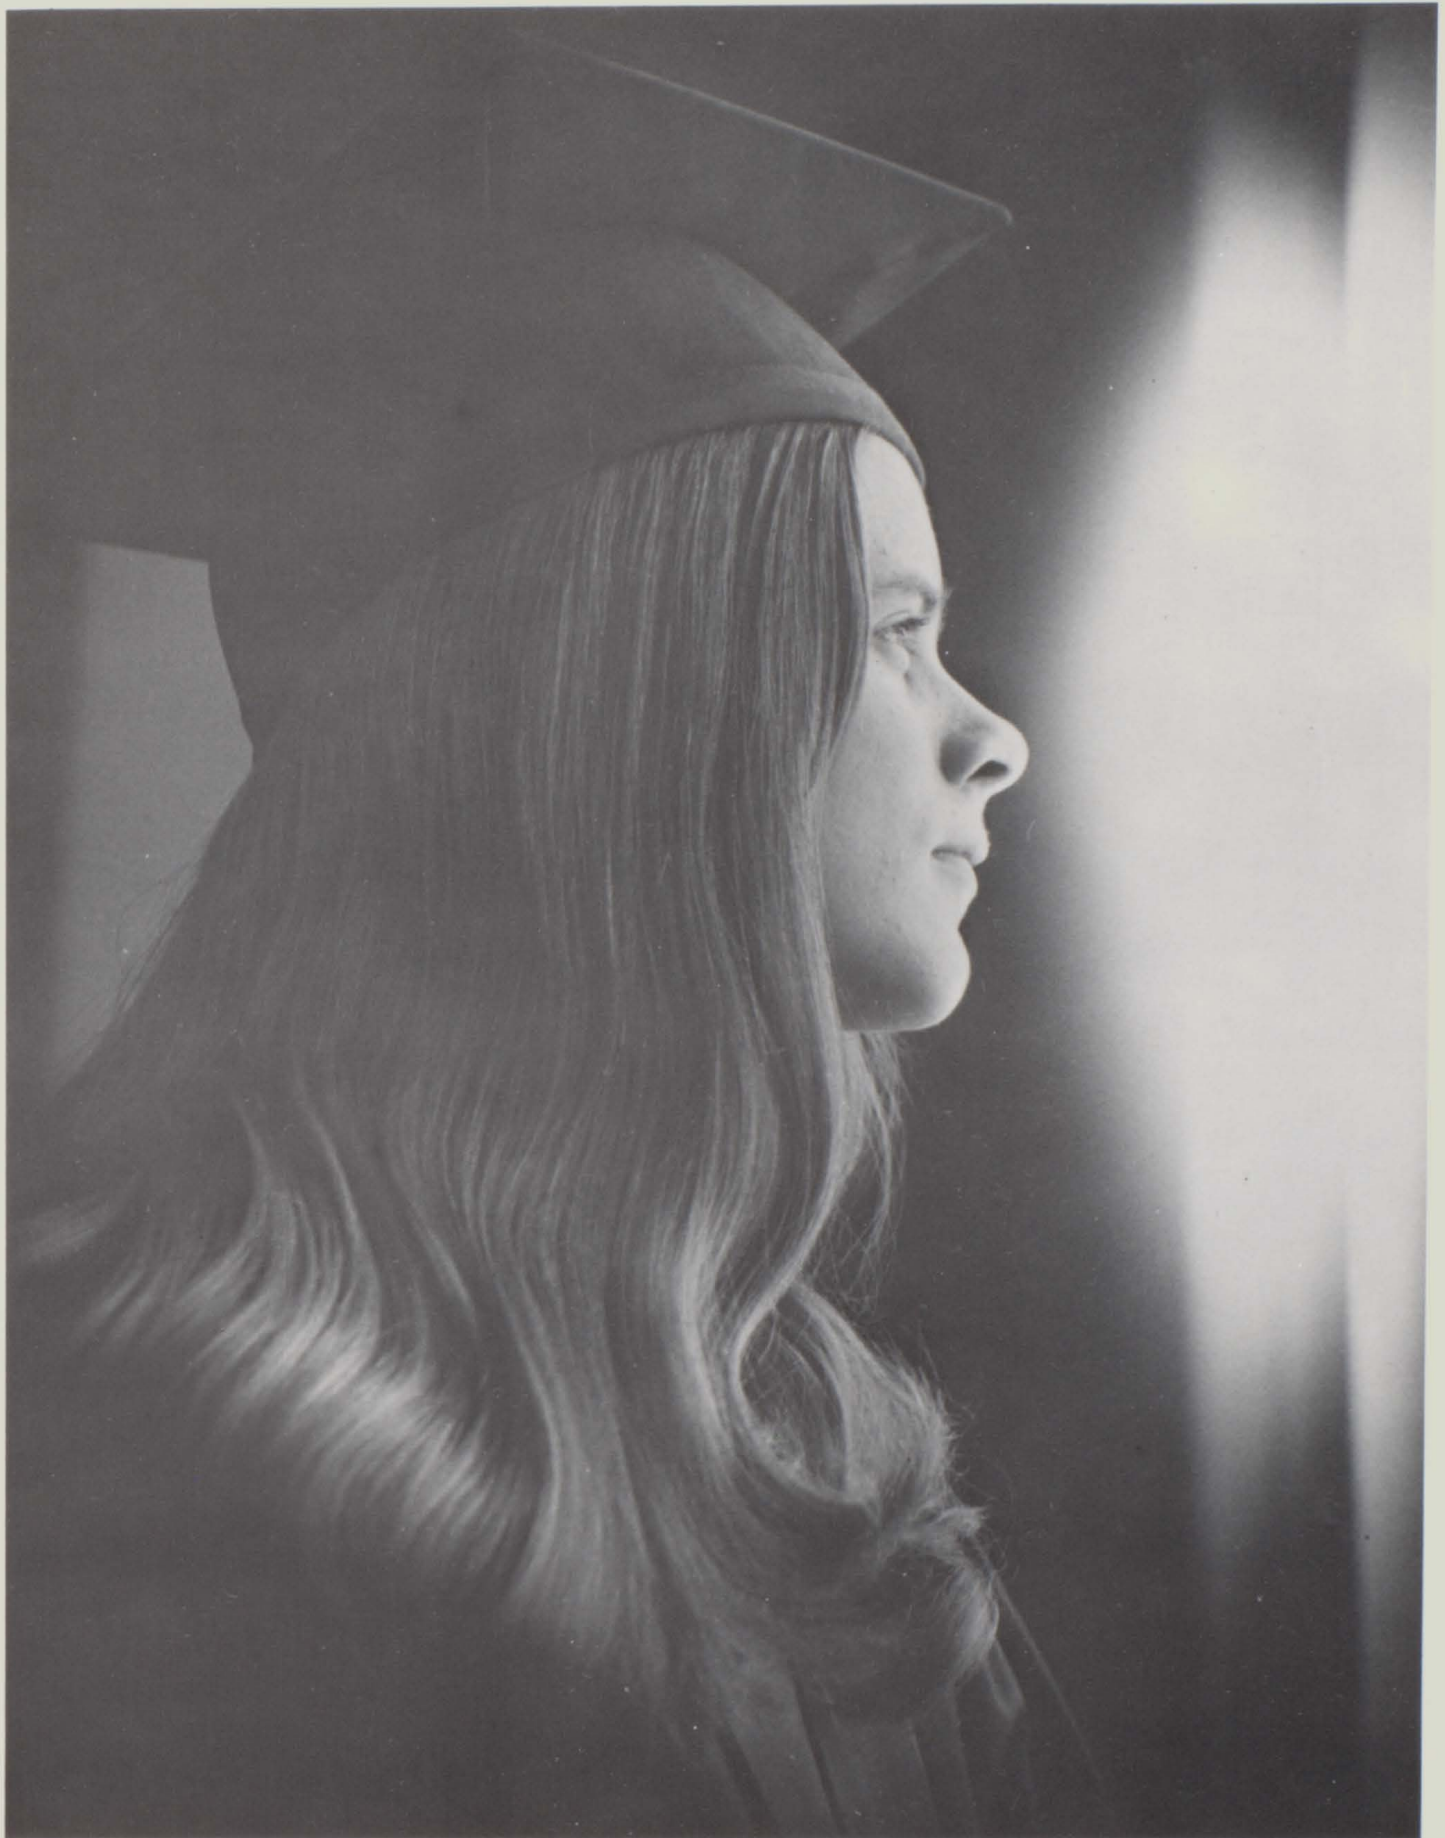

Arne Keller, from Otterup, Denmark, has added a few new sounds to B-G with his harmonica, - and his bagpipes! Arne has 3 billion sibblings ("we are all brothers") and thinks concrete is nice for sidewalks, but doesn't like it for breakfast!" Arne also appreciates chess, popcorn, and a hot cup of tea.

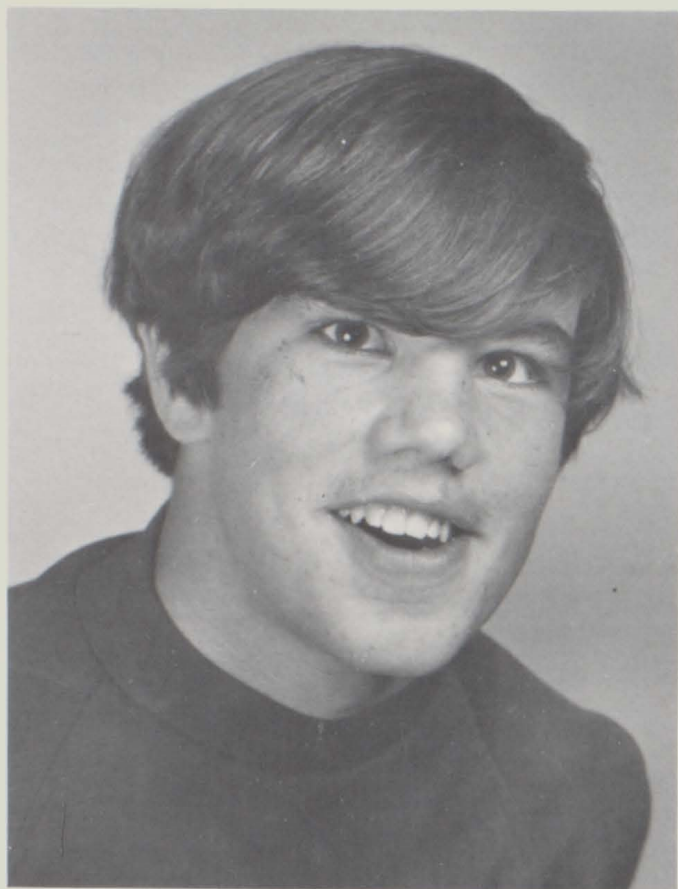

Bouncy Patty Avila hails from Trinida, Bolivia. She has 3 sisters and 2 brothers, and her father owns a beef ranch the size of Chenago County! Patty likes sports, and plays the accordion. We hope she enjoy's her stay as much as we've enjoyed having her.

Memoriam

Steven Vredenburgh

His suffering ended with the day;
yet lived he at its close,
And breathed the long, long night away
in statue-like repose.

But when the sun in all his state,
Illumed the eastern skies,
He passed through glory's morning gate,
And walked in paradise.

James Aldrich

Susan Meres

Sleep that no pain shall wake,
Night that no mourn shall break,
Till joy shall overtake
Her perfect peace.

"I never knew getting dressed for track could be so much fun."

Does Ellie always have this much fun eating?

"Please don't hurt me, Mr.!"

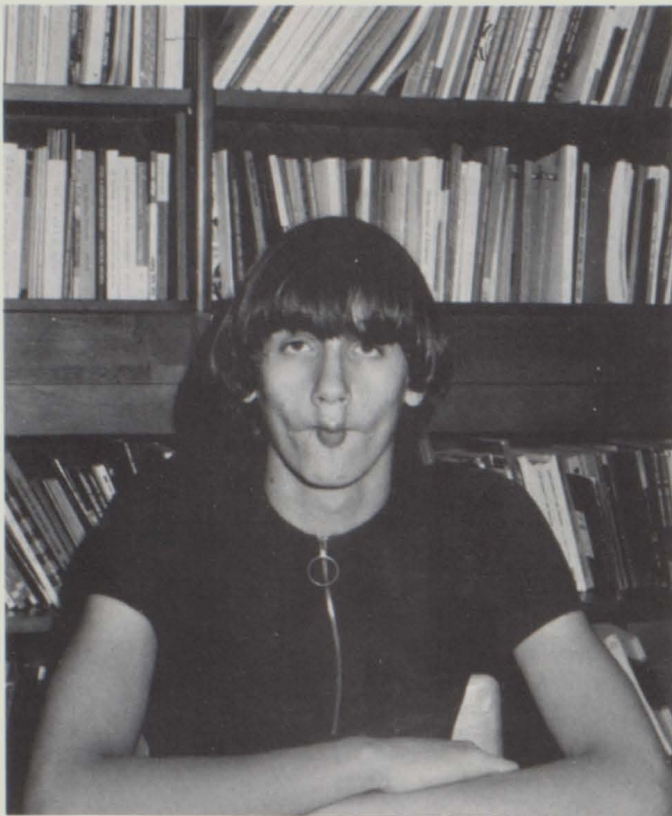

What master plan lurks behind all that hair?

Biting ones lips does not calm ones nerves.

. . . and when he laughed his belly shook like a bowl full of jelly.

The look of love

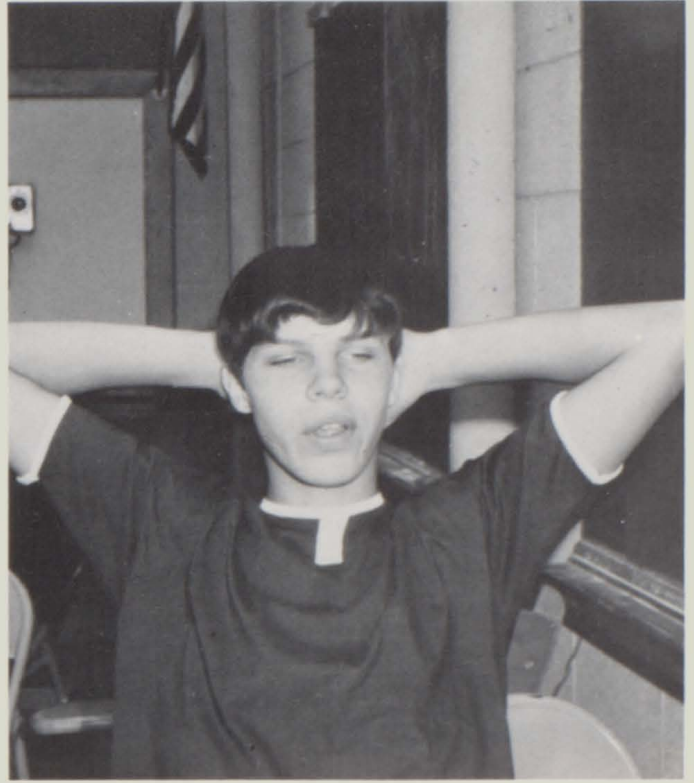

"How to concentrate while eating" by Max Lindstrom

Nothing like making yourself at home is there?

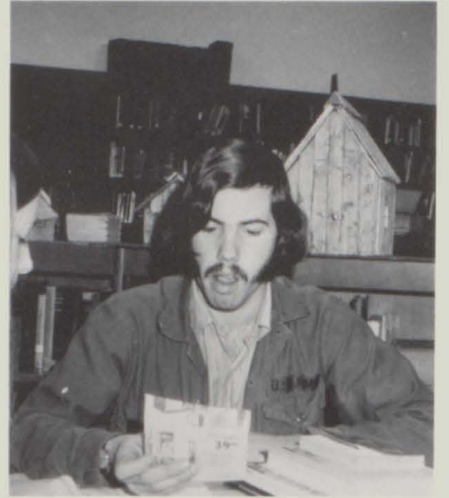

"Come back you . . . !"

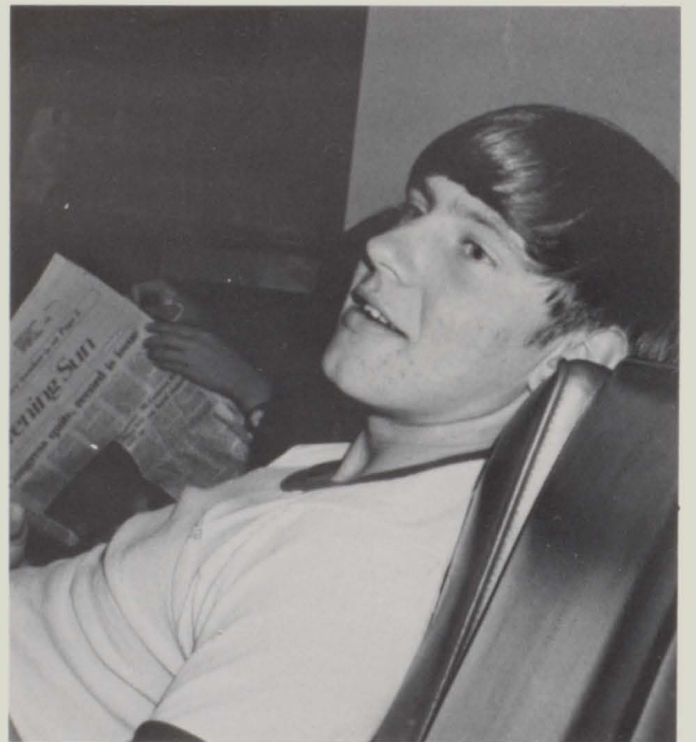

The ever lasting smile of a clown

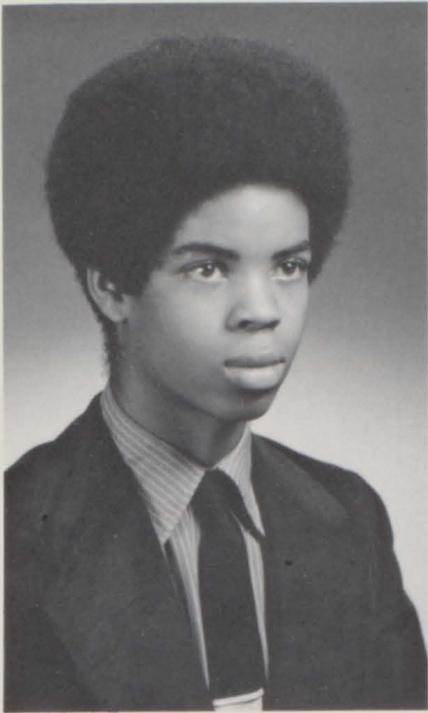

Could this be love at first sight?
