1990

BAINBRIDGE-GUILFORD

18 Juliand Street

Bainbridge, New York 13733

We look back to yesterday, ahead to our tomorrows.

We look at the times of joy and the times of sorrow.

Each day is a memory, never to be lost or faded;

The mysteries of life we have pondered and contemplated.

Someday, somewhere, all of us will make our marks in society

As we take our steps into 1990.

Dedication

Mrs. Janet Predmore

We, the students and staff of Bainbridge-Guilford High School, dedicate the 1990 ECHO to none other than Mrs. Janet Predmore.

Mrs. Predmore was born on January 1, 1933, and lived in Guilford. She was salutatorian of Guilford Central School's class of 1951. In 1953, she completed her nurse's training at Wilson Memorial Hospital in Johnson City, New York. In 1954, she married James Predmore, Jr. and had three children — Kim, Mark, and Sharon.

She began working for the Bainbridge-Guilford School system in 1967 as a teacher's aide and later a secretary at Guilford Elementary School. Mrs. Predmore began working at Bainbridge-Guilford High School in 1978.

When you walk into the high school office, you will see a lady in an atmosphere of controlled action. She is a lady in every aspect of the word; dedicated to the task at hand; and willing and able to help you with your problems.

As we step into our futures, she will always make a lasting impression on all of us.

"Just try to keep in step with this very special lady!"

STEPPING INTO

OF

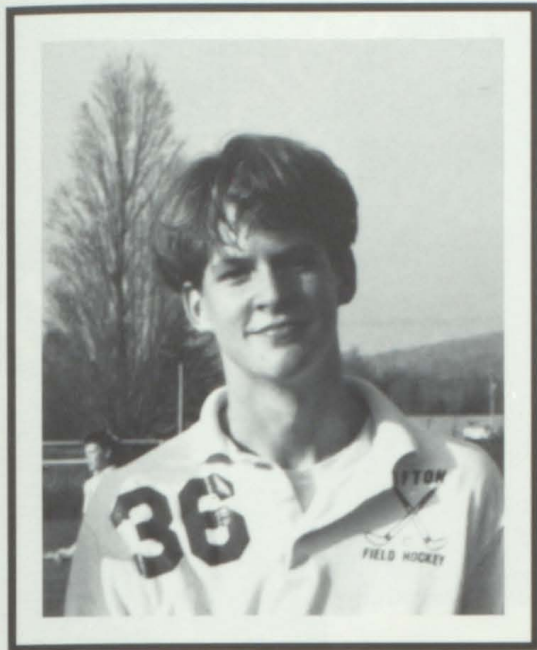

THE FUTURE!!!

DOMINIK ADLER FROM GERMANY

After my sister told me all the nice things she had in her year overseas, I decided to be an exchange student myself. I got accepted for Bainbridge, New York and first it was difficult to find it on the map.

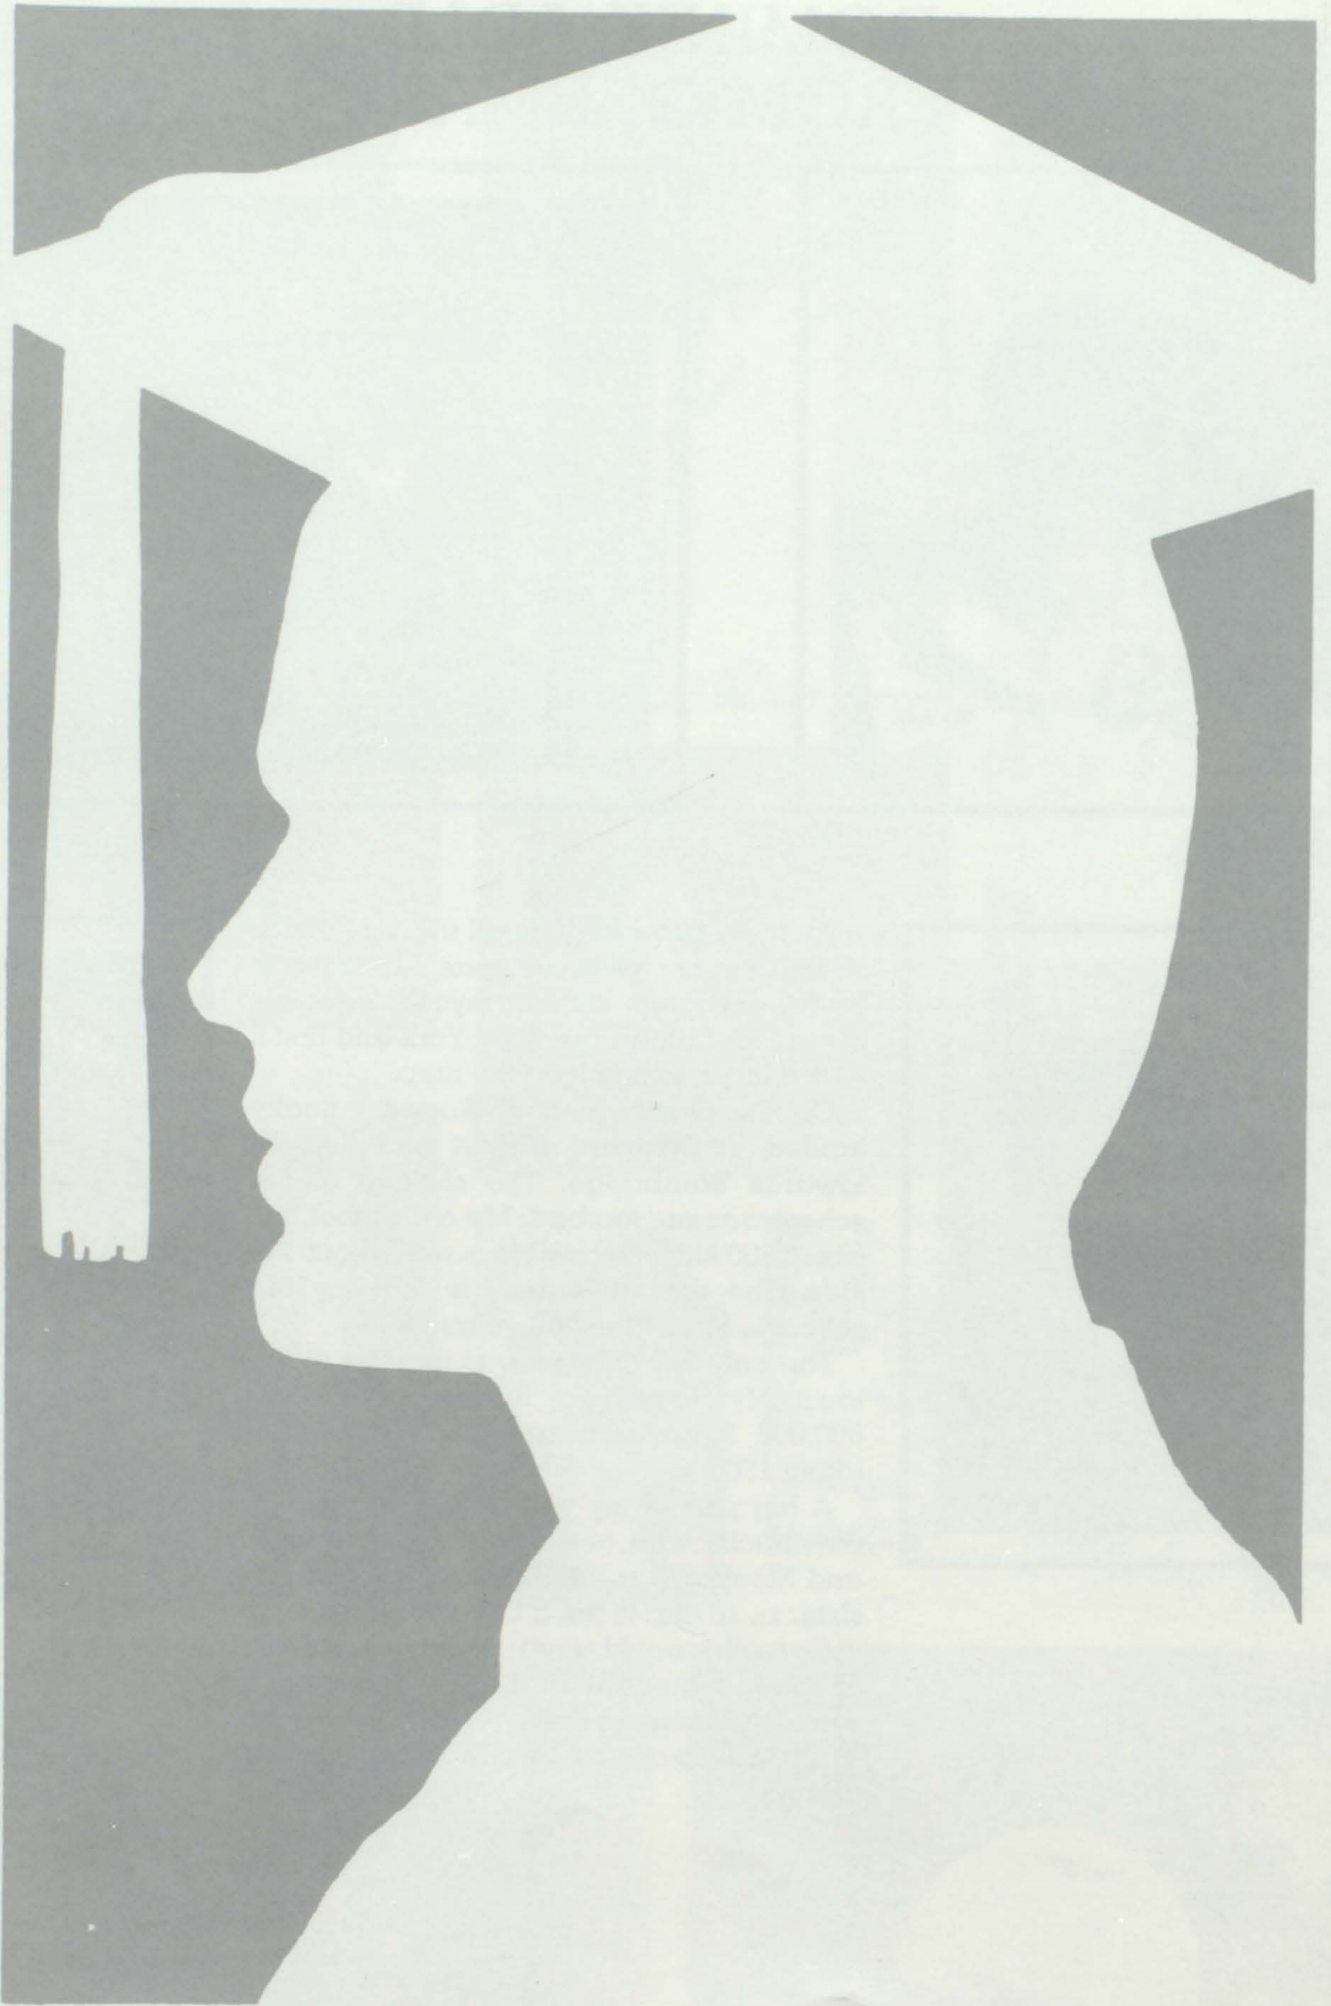

On the twenty-third of August I finally landed at Syracuse Airport and headed towards Bainbridge. The change of the school was not too bad. My old school has about 800 kids and my class was about 150 kids. The only difference is that my old school is more than 700 years old.

The only big change was the size of the town. My Hometown "Bremen" has about 600,000 inhabitants and Bainbridge has about 1500.

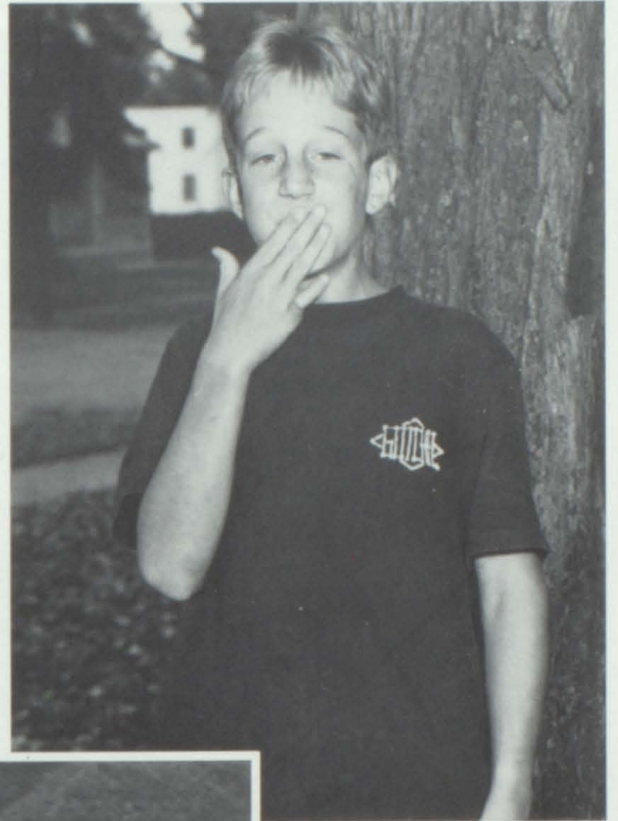

A big part of my well-being is probably Steinbachs who are a really nice family, and Stephanie is the same type of girl my sister is, so that is not a big change either.

Overall I would say it is great to be an exchange student in Bainbridge and I would recommend that everyone try out for it. If I had the choice, I would definitely do it again.

Putting a yearbook together is a task that takes much time, effort, and dedication. These three elements were highly evident as we were assembling the 1990 ECHO. This can be seen with the advertising committee, who raised over $2,000 in ads and patron sponsors. Many thanks go to JoAnn Rundle for making this year one of the most successful as far as advertising is concerned. I would also like to thank Casey Frost for keeping the books balanced, a job which is very difficult. For the first time in many years, the B-G ECHO is financially stable for the next year. A special thank you also goes out to Michelle Wessels, Andrea Darling, and Vicky Safford for being among the top advertising salespeople.

The three elements of time, effort, and dedication were evident with the layout and typing staffs as well. For the first time in many years, the layout and typing staffs were able to complete and submit work prior to the deadlines. Many times, members of these staffs willingly gave up either their Saturday or Sunday afternoons in order to work on yearbook. I would like to thank Jason Carroll, Wendy Goetz, Steph Flathers, Allison Darling, Denise DiNoto, Teri Cairns, Grace Devera, Sheri Reynolds, Stacia Ross, Shelly Gifford, and Chris McCall. A thank you also goes out to our photographers Cody Britton, Jeff Mitchell, and Stephanie Torta. If all of these people were not around to help, the ECHO would not have become a reality.

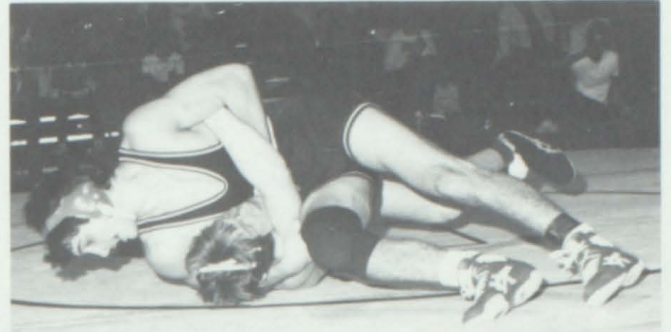

Last, and by no means least, I would like to give a really big thank you to Mrs. Branham. Without her assistance, compassion, and, most of all, dedication, this yearbook would have not been possible. I would like to thank you for giving up time with your family in order to supervise us while we worked on yearbook. You have been a Godsend!

I can honestly say that I am proud of the accomplishments of the 1990 ECHO staff. I hope that next year's ECHO will be even better yet! Best of luck to everybody and all of their endeavors!

ENGLISH II DRAMA PRESENTATION

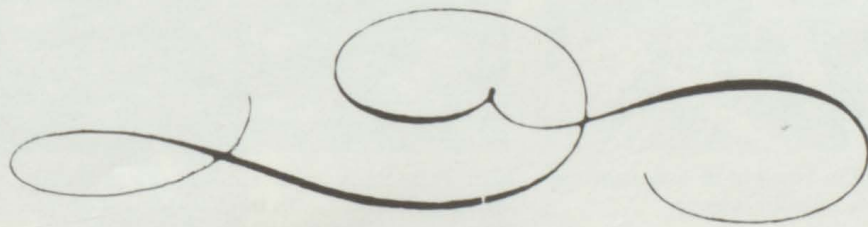

OVER THE PAST YEAR?

CHRISTMAS DRIVE

"NEW KID" PLAY

This past year marked the death of two of America's famous entertainers: Irving Berlin and Lucille Ball.

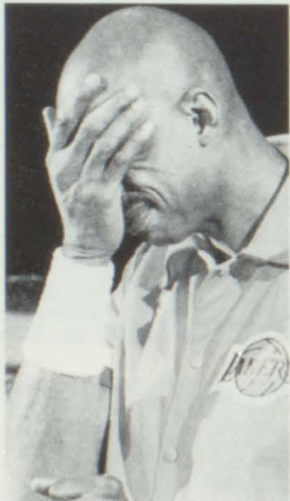

Michael Jordan flies through the air with a monster dunk.

Joe Montana leads the 49ers to a 55-10 victory over the Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV.

One of the hottest films of the summer was "Batman" starring Jack Nicholson as the Joker.

This year brought to a close the careers of two sporting greats: Chris Evert and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar

Oakland A's celebrate their 4-0 win over San Francisco Giants in the World Series. (Oct. 1989)

By the downfall of the Berlin Wall, West Berliners proved that the force of freedom can penetrate through the iron curtain. (Nov. 1989)

The U.S. military removed Gen. Noriega from Panama and delivered him to the American judicial system. (Dec. 1989)

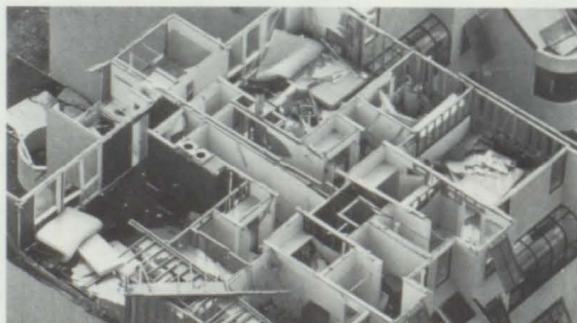

Charlestown, South Carolina was ripped apart by Hurricane Hugo. (Sept. 21, 1989)

"Born on the Fourth of July" was one of the most popular movies of 1990. The film portrayed the life of a Vietnam Vet.

Pete Rose was charged with betting on his own team and was banned from baseball for life. (Fall 1989)

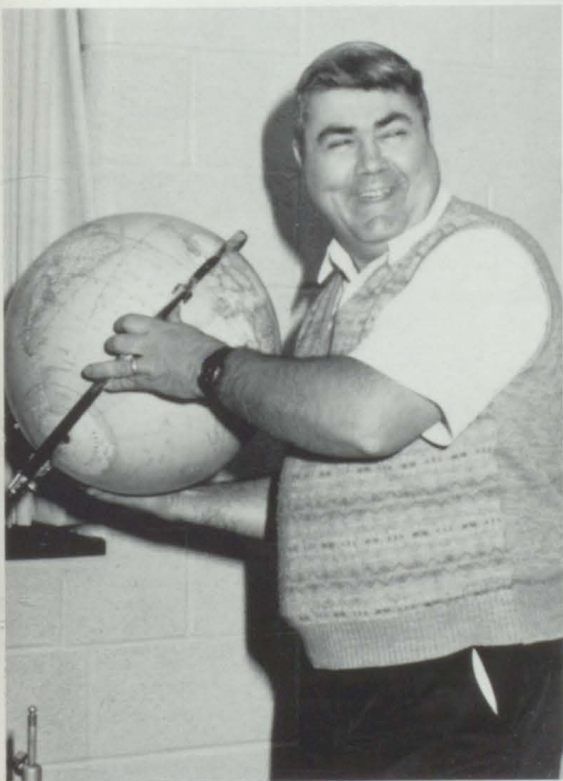

San Francisco was shaken by an earthquake which reached 7.1 on the Richter scale, causing the Bay Bridge disaster. (Oct. 1989)

One of the hottest new singers this year was Paula Abdul and she is aiming "straight up."

COOKING UP A STORM

Mrs. Sowles, Mrs. Carlin, Mrs. Simonds, Mrs. Clair, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Rommer

Don't wrap it, bag it!

Why do we have to put up with this?

It doesn't matter if you "Winn" or lose.

Smile; People will wonder what you've been up to.

Talk about getting stepped on.

Not another cameraman!

Santa Claus' Secret Occupation

When's coffee break?

What?

I'll only tell you one more time!

Now it's story time boys and girls.

First, you need to turn on the power.

Leave me alone. It's coffee break!

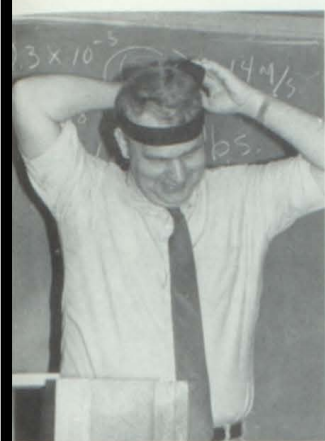

How long do I have to smile?

So you're skipping lessons?

Rebel without a cause.

Mr. Armstrong stars in the Karate Kid Part 100.

Aw Miltie, Can't we go to Hawaii this weekend?

Yes, I did say 5000 Croissants.

Wilma's out for this weekend, so I'll try Betty.

Uh, oh, Forgot my wallet.

What do you mean it isn't right?

It can't be Monday!

What? Me worry?

To forgive is divine — forgive me for torturing students.

Here, Mr. Hughes is holding the new Adidas flyswatter.

It just has to be Friday.

Why Can't This Night

Mrs. Craver, our fearless leader!

Look at them legs!

N. Richetti, QUEEN — T. Cairns, N. Richetti, J. Fletcher — D. Scheidegger (last year's Queen and King), KING — R. Hurba, COURT: Row 1: R. Bradbury, B. Bartow,

You can dress them up and take them out!

Isn't she lovely?

Take the picture already!

Tonya Ives and Kim Hoag enjoying the moment.

King Ryan Hurba

Go On Forever

H. Winn, M. Klockowski, C. Puffer, Row 2: J. Cooper, S. Crouch, E. Georgia, N. Ermlich, K. Hotaling.

Cory and Cam Ermlich diggin' in!

For our listening pleasure.

I want that balloon!

Queen Teri Cairns.

Heidi Foster and Mike Klockowski — aren't they a charming pair?

Say cheese!

Get funky!

I hope he'll ask me to dance!

EARTH 20th ANN

And Mr. Church said he was just filming for the seniors.

1990 Earth Day

Only 20 more miles to the rest stop.

Spreading a message for our generation.

The ladies behind

Didn't you say take a left at the big tree?

What do you mean the bus quit and we have to walk?

This is good enough to hang on the refrigerator!

DAY 1990 VERSARY

Walk-a-Thon

Grace, we're not supposed to be on the same side!

Row, row, row your boat gently down the stream . . .

Is the camera ready yet?

their shades.

At Rogers Conservation Park

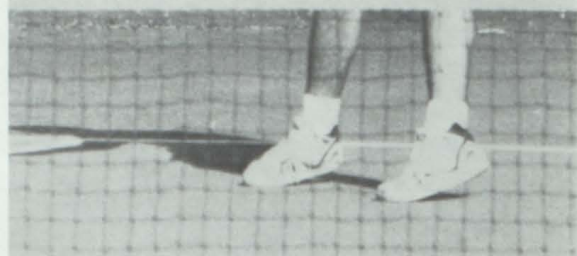

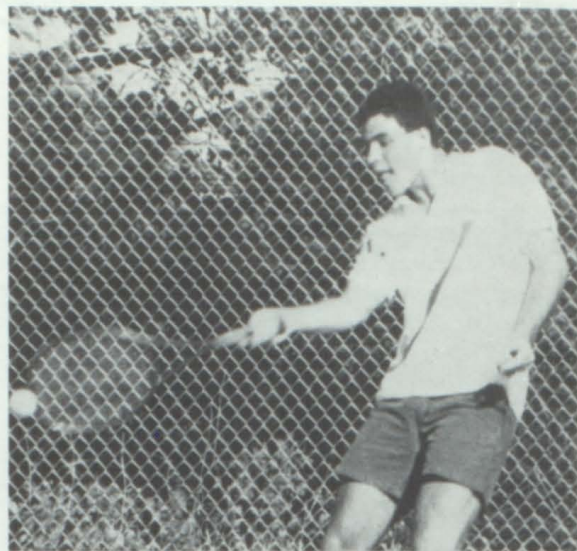

Everybody smile and pretend that you are having fun.

The man behind the math.

Steff Torta guards home plate with determination.

Jeff meets the ball with style.

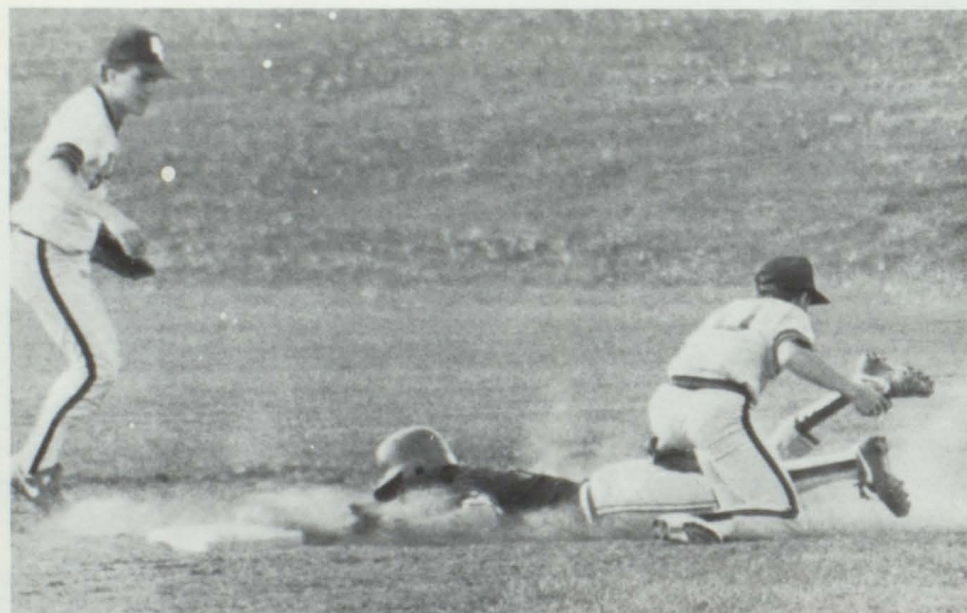

BLACKHAWK SOFTBALL
	RUNS	INN
OXFORD	4	7
	OUTS
VISITOR	6	0

B-G Softball takes their first step toward Section 4 Class Semi-Finals by dominating Oxford with a 6-4 victory. Then on to S-E with a 13-9 win. Their last game of the season was a gallant effort against Seton-Catholic.

Casey Perry meets the challenge!

Here comes the wind-up!

You're outta there, bud!

"STUDENTS ON THE MOVE"

TO EUROPE — In April these students were just a few who participated in the trip to Spain and France, sponsored by the language department.

TO COURT — In May the Mock Trial students did extremely well in different levels of competition.

PIE IN THE EYE CONTEST

Some teachers will do anything for a piece of pie. Thank you Mr. D. Rice, Mr. S. Rice, Mr. Hughes, Miss Koval, Mr. Bosworth.

AP ENGLISH

Students battle it out face to face over a chess match, of all things. Both teams were "brain drained" to the point of exhaustion after a dramatic finish.
