Beyond B-G

K. Ruff and K. Holowacz enjoy the hike from their parked cars on this beautiful day.

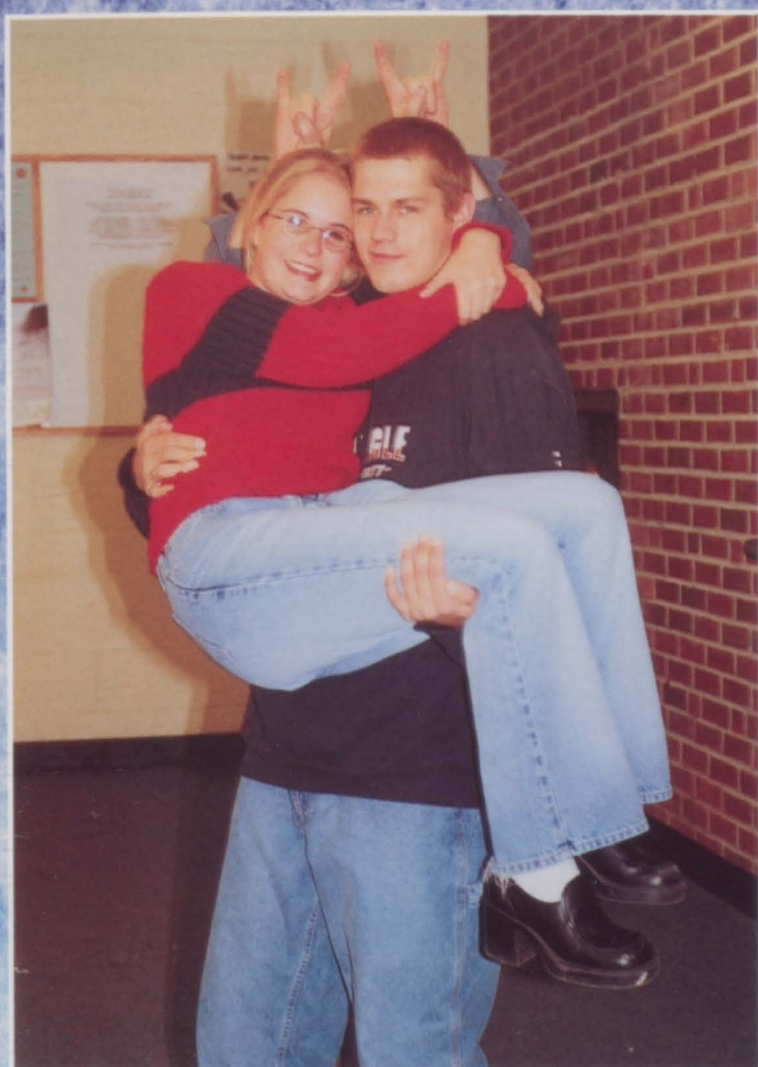

"I don't need any help William!" declares S. Loucks to B. Clark.

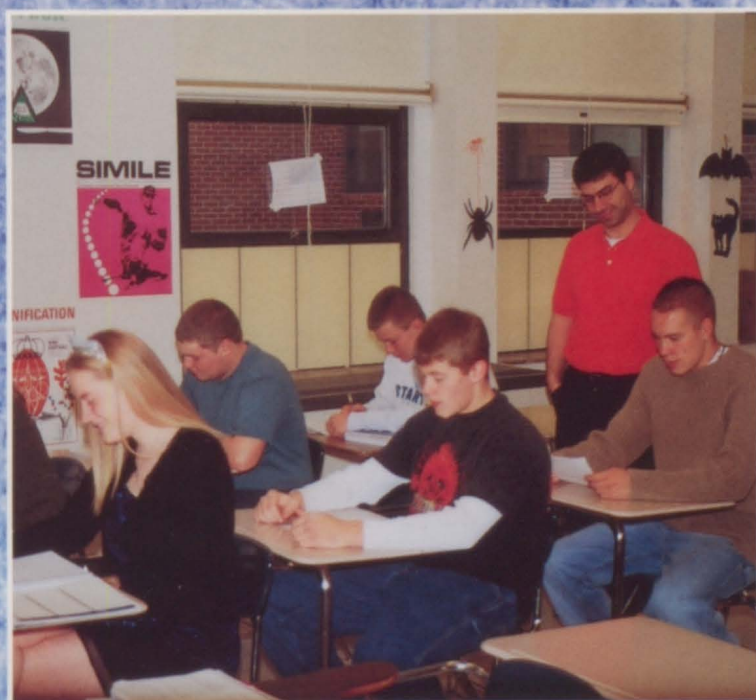

J. Drzazgowski, K. Smith, N. Miller, E. Craver, S. Rude, S. Eggleston, and E. Kitchen discover that the best way to spend your lunch time is at a class meeting.....NOT!!

Read?...Me?...This Book?...Do I have to?...debates H. Spaholz.

Does Mr. Rice know something about J. Shear and A. Myers that the rest of us don't?

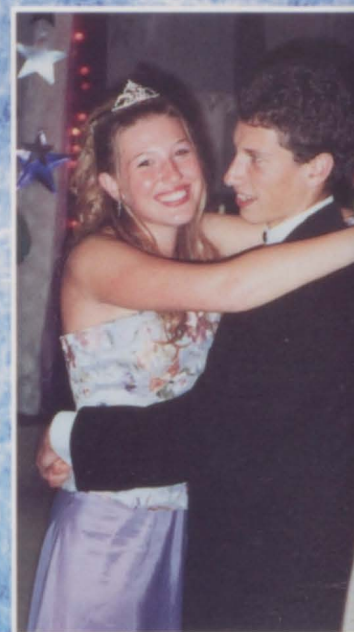

Mr. Grigoli is impressed with K. Holowacz, N. Ives, D. Bradbury, R. Richmond, and S. Frawley's ability to look like they're working!

HAPPINESS

The gift of happiness belongs to those who unwrap it.

The soul would have no rainbow had the eyes not tears.

Happiness is that particular sensation you acquire when you are too busy to be miserable.

No one has ever injured his eyesight by looking on the bright side of things.

Spit a pickle for the sophomores, you betcha!

Help a student write a report, will do!

Explain new material, no problem!

Pride and Spirit Float

FRIENDSHIP

I'd like to see the sort of friend that you have been to me,

*I'd like to be the help that you are always glad to be,
I'd like to mean as much to you each minute of the day,
As you have meant, Good friend of mine, to me along the way.*

Your Little One

*There are little eyes upon you,
and they're watching night and day;
There are little ears that quickly
take in ever word you say;
There are little hands all eager to do everything you do,
And a little boy or girl who's dreaming of the day they'll be like you.*

*You're the little darling's idol;
you're the wisest of the wise;
In their little mind about you
no suspicions ever rise;
They believe in you devoutly,
and all you say and do,
They will say and do in your way
when they'll be grown up just like you.*

*There's a wide-eyed little sweetheart who believes you're always right,
And their ears are always open,
as they watch day and night.
You are setting an example
every day in all you do
For the little one who's waiting
TO GROW UP TO BE LIKE YOU!*

New Visions

The New Visions Allied Health program is for college bound seniors who are interested in pursuing a career in any of the health related fields. The classroom is located at the local Sidney Hospital. These opportunities were created by BOCES for students in good academic standing and who like to challenge themselves.

The benefits of being in the New Visions Allied Health program are countless. A student is able to see what goes on behind the scenes at a local health care facility. This program is recognized by a number of colleges and Universities as an education that produces quality students who know what it takes to be successful in any career in the health care field. Students who graduate having taken the New Visions course graduate with experience, knowledge, clinical experience. College level credit may be received for the english and government components of this program.

Heather Bucalos

ALLIED HEALTH

New Oisions has given me the opportunity to explore options that I would not otherwise have. It has provided me with real-world experiences along with intellectual stimulation. I have also had the chance to experience hands-on training which is essential in the field of law and government. New Oisions has helped me to grasp a better understanding of my interests in this field.

Kelly McClain

For me, New Oisions has been an experience like no other. During my senior year I was able to shadow many well-respected members of the community. My favorite rotation through the course was in family court with Judge Sullivan. I felt comfortable enough at the end of the rotation to ask him for a college recommendation. I also had the opportunity to shadow Assemblymen Crouch. I accompanied him to Albany where I was able to meet many different people including senator Libous and NY Mets manager Bobby Valentine. As a result, I now have the opportunity to do intern work for his office.

Johanna Trevorah

Ariel Engelman is one of the fortunate Law & Government students in the New Oisions program. This opportunity is sure to open many doors for her future success.

Mr. Tompkins is a man of the 21st century, using his new computer skills.

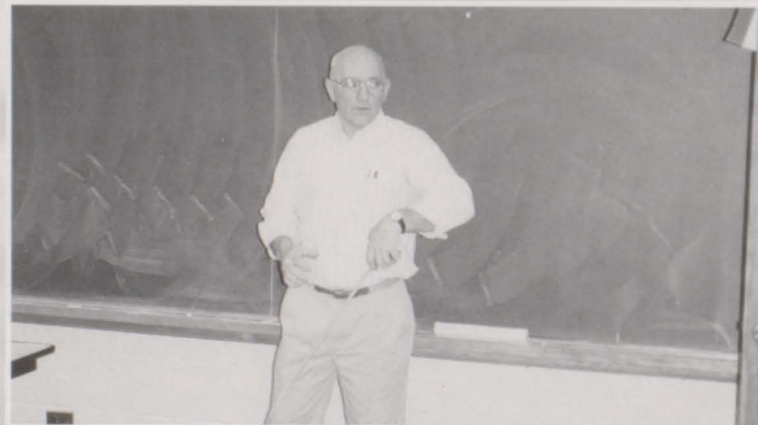

That smile on his face disguises his sweaty palms and racing heart-beat during this very important oral presentation.

Mr. Tompkins has always been hard at work at his desk, who will be on level 2 this time?

What a handsome young fellow in his earlier days.

You must understand, logs do not come from trees!

Mr. Tompkins was born in Rhinebeck, NY in 1942 A.D. In 1960 Mr. Tompkins graduated from South New Berlin Central School. He was South New Berlin's very own Junior Prom King. Mr. Tompkins went on to graduate from Syracuse University in 1964. He then attended Graduate School at the University of Oregon. He started working at Bainbridge-Guilford in 1964. Mr. Tompkins favorite part of his job is the students.

He and his wife have two children, Teresa and Shawn, and two grandchildren Christopher and Julia. He is an avid Phillies fan, enjoys sports, working on his Christmas tree farm, and spending time with his grandchildren.

"My arms are short, you can't expect me to reach to number 3 on your paper!"

"I know math is difficult, but if I can do it, you can do it."

"Pie are not round, pi r² (pie are square)"

"Say it with me, Math is fun, Math is fun."

Faculty and Staff Improving Our Horizons

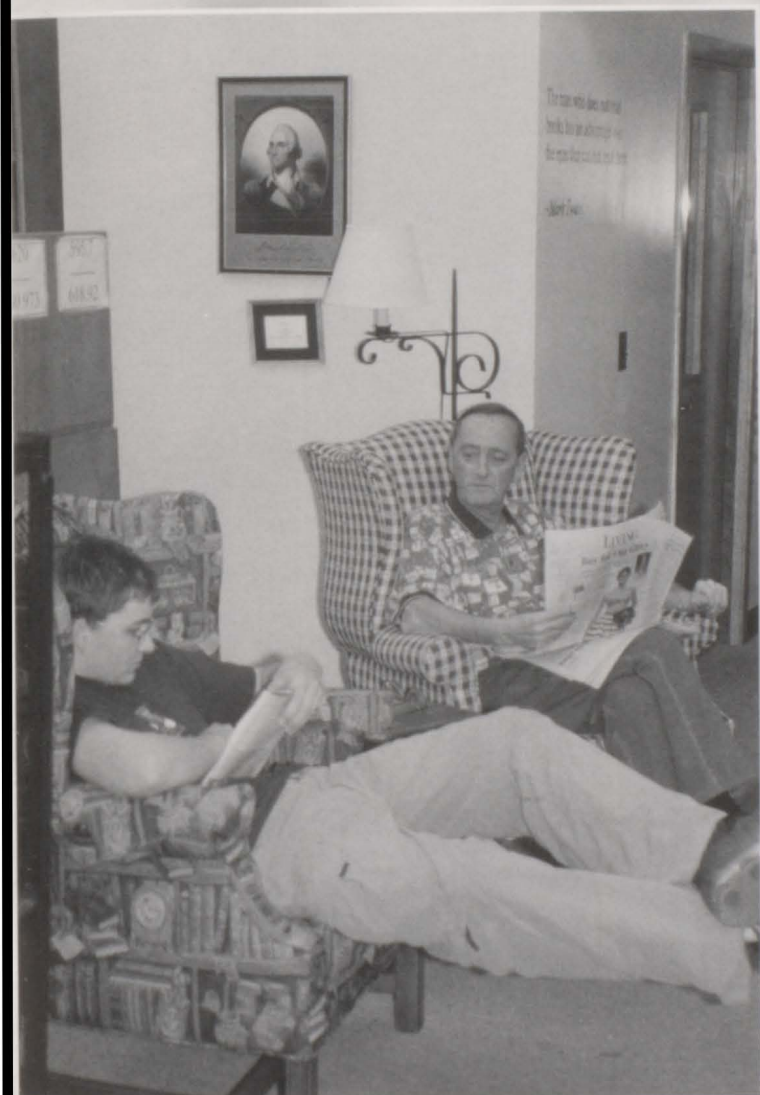

A. Finne, C. Millner, K. Cirigliano and E. Casey welcome students as they chit-chat about their weekend.

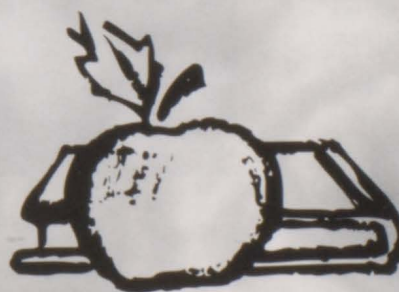

Mr. Mattingly shows off his brain power because he "Wants to be A Millionaire!"

S. Carlin meets with her favorite teacher, Ms. Slack, to discuss everything but math!

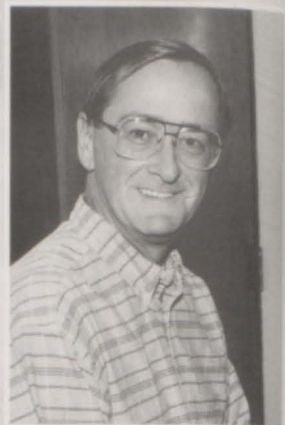

Mr. Bakoon admires how well D. Cook imitates his business teacher as he lounges in the library.

"One buns, two buns, three buns, four..." D. Schultz tries to keep herself entertained as she prepares lunch for the students.

Clubs & Activities

Accustomed to the cold winds and snow, these ski club members know that dreary weather doesn't have to mean dreary spirits as they enjoy a refreshing snowball fight between classes.

DARE
different

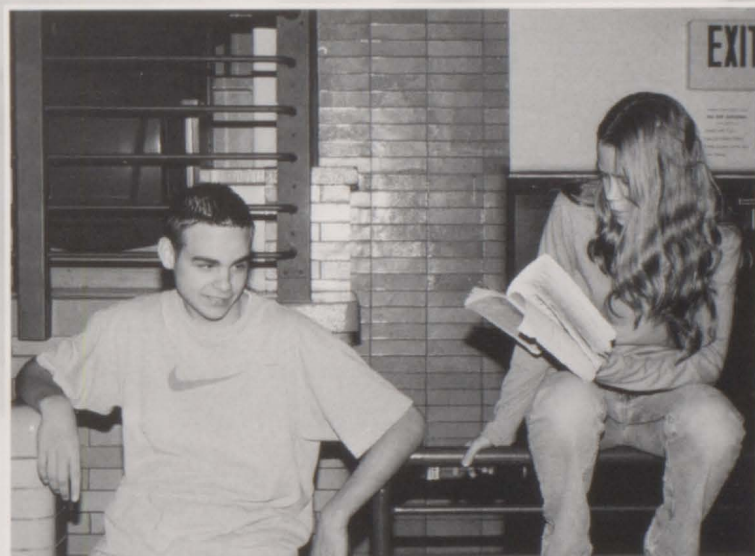

Drama students know that everyone has their own unique way of "getting into their part" as they concentrate on perfecting their roles.

Fun in the autumn sun as these students take a break from their busy schedules and stressful school work.

Student Council sure has some fascinating faces and personalities among it's members each year... but this certainly tops it all!

This hard working SADD member shows her ambition by applying herself outside of the meeting.

"It's not all about curtains and bright lights... first it takes hours of rehearsing and memorizing lines," explains J. Polasik to co-star W. Randall.

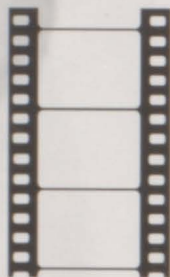

Yearbook

The yearbook staff is well-accustomed to the hard work and late nights that are necessary to create a dynamite yearbook for the students and staff at B-G. A lot more goes into it than most people might think, but these students accepted the challenge with excitement and determination. Photography, layouts, captions, and deadlines are just a few of the many things this year's staff have worked to perfect. In the end, all of the long hours, creativity, and dedication pay off.

The result is a work of art: an entire year of memories to be shared and remembered for years to come.

Doddy Benedict

M. Henchey, and A. Bianchi always manage to have a smile on their faces during the fun, exciting hours in front of the computer.

A. Bianchi attempts to lighten the mood of the strenuous yearbook meeting so A. Smith, C. Smith, D. Benedict, and M. Henchey can't help but laugh.

"Yes....." naipes up D. Benedict as she sifts through her files while C. Tranvaag looks on with curiosity.

"You think I know what I'm doing? I have no Idea!" jokes C. Smith.

"Yeah, only one more deadline!" Exclaims H. Bucalos.

SADD & ADSAP

Originally, the mission of the SADD chapter was to help young people say "No" to drinking and driving. Today, that mission has expanded. Students have told us that positive peer pressure, role models and other strategies can help them say "No" to more than drinking and driving. And that is why SADD has become a peer leadership organization dedicated to preventing underage drinking and drug use by focusing attention on the potentially life threatening consequences of destructive decisions involving issues such as not wearing a safety belt, smoking, steroid use, violence, sexually transmitted diseases and suicide.

SADD's mission simply stated is:

To provide students with the best prevention and intervention tools possible to deal with the issues of underage drinking, drunk driving, drug abuse and other destructive decisions.

Drama Club

Drama Club has ben an excellent extracirricular activity available to students of all ages. Students are able to express their creativity and originality in a positive manner. Drama Club brings art, music, and talent into view at B-G. Those involved enjoy getting to know others who share their common intrests. Successful productions are made in cooperation with actors, singers, dancers, stage crew, stage managers and directors, as well as all others involved. Drama club is a great activity for both middle school and highschool students, and brings laughter and joy to the surrounding community.

Student Council

Student Council has been a productive organization throughout it's years in BG. Aside from various leadership conferences and learning experiences it has also been involved in charitable organizations. For example, this year Student Council as well as other students and staff members came together to help families in need during the Christmas season. Student Council isn't all work though, it's a chance to make new friends, meet interesting people and help our community.

Science Olympiad

BG's second Science Olympiad team represented their school well and made their coaches proud. All team members participated with great spirit and enthusiasm among some very tough competition. Our seniors John Bianchi, Hans Spalholz and Steve Sterchak all performed exceptionally well with Hans and Steve winning medals and John just missing a medal with fourth place. We all look forward to seeing the team continue to grow in future years.

Girls Soccer

The 2001 B-G Girls Varsity Soccer Team had a memorable season highlighted by a large school division championship, recognition as a N.Y.S. Scholar-athlete team and a sportsmanship plaque from the Triple Cities Soccer Officials Association.

Dawn Jorett led the team in scoring with 14 goals and 3 assists and was selected a MAC All-League All-Star. Division I all-star honors were given to Leah DuMont, Christina Benham, Bethany Banks and Ashley Smith.

A special moment occurred during a night game at Sidney when, with B-G trailing 2-0, Christina Benham scored two goals in 24 seconds and kept the division championship dream alive.

Boys Soccer

The new Mid-state Athletic Conference proved to be very competitive in boys soccer this year. Our team performed better than expected after graduating 13 seniors from last years' team.

Returning players who earned individual honors include Hans Spalholz, who was an S-E tournament all-star. Damian Oliviera earned S-E tournament all-star playing goal keeper. Jake Spalholz set the school record with 17 goals in 15 game and he earned first team division honors.

With six returning players and a strong JV roster to select from we expect to improve our standings in the league next year.

Off-season is the Key

High School sports are competitive, and in order to do well in competing you have to put forth time and practice in the off-season. There are many ways to train in the off-season.

They are:

- Weight-training (3 times a week)
- Running (Non-weight training days)
- Sprints (3 times a week)
- Technique Building (Desired)
- Pick-up games (Desired)
- Stretching (Before any vigorous motions)

If you do some of these off-season training, you'll improve in any high school sport. If you want to train for a specific sport, you can sign up for summer camp. These camps will give you practice situation, in a competitive, non-meaningful environment.

Volleyball

This years Varsity Volleyball demonstrated what it takes to be a champion. After a rough start the team pulled together to finish the regular season with an over all 13-6 record, winning their last nine in a row. The team entered Sectionals as the third seed, and knocked off 2nd seeded Walton in the semi-finals. Their next challenge was for the school's first Sectional championships. After losing to a strong Delhi team the girls ended up as Class C runner ups, and claimed the title of Section 4 Class D Champions!

Boys Basketball

This years season was marked by many ups and downs, but the players never lost sight of what was important, working together, improving and growing as a person. At the Unatego Tip-Off Tournament the Bobcats earned third place. Erik Weber was elected to the All Tournament Team by scoring 11 pts. against GMU and 24 pts. in a victory against Hancock. The turning point of the season was at the Harpursville Holiday Tournament when the Bobcats fell 5 points short of knocking off Walton who was ranked 20th in the state. Steve Nelson was named to the Harpursville All-Tournament Team. The next high point was Erik Weber's 9 three point baskets against Greene, which is believed to be a school record. Justin Worden's four charges against S-E demonstrated the teams toughness and determination. The Bobcats were extremely competitive the remainder of the season including two overnight games. Although our win loss record was not what we hoped it would be, this season will be looked on as success in many other aspects which are a part of high school athletics.

"Whoa, whoa, whoa!" exclaims C. Locke as his opponent gets a little too personal.

Look at those bulging biceps as D. Buchanan shows off his super-strong hold.

"Ooooh Ouch!" J. Buttice always knows exactly how to make his adversary grimace with pain.

B. Hanson knows that "intimidation" is the name of the game.

Nate takes the time to enjoy the look of fear in his competitors eyes as he takes another step toward State Finals.

Improvements- this is the one word that could summarize the Boys Varsity Swim season. Improvements in work ethics led to improvements in personal best times. Once the boys began to drop their times they became more motivated, attitudes grew more positive. We are a young team and need more experience with the competitive aspects of the sport. However, we look forward to the upcoming seasons!!

Coach Durnford

S. Smith is concentrating on Coach Durnford's careful instructions in technique 101.

Led by junior captains Casey Reigles, Megan Metzger, and Sara Smith the versatile and talented girls swimteam had a successful season. They finished with a 4-4 league record and a third place finish in the League Championship Meet. Three new school records were set throughout the season and several girls placed in the top sixteen at the Class B sectional meet (Lindsay Sherman, 11th place in the 500 freestyle). Stephanie Holowacz earned the award for most versatile swimmer while Samatha Oliveira and Jessica Campos earned the awards for most improved.

Music Beyond Mozart

"What this band needs is some practical MAGIC" exclaims Mr. Smith as he waves his wand.

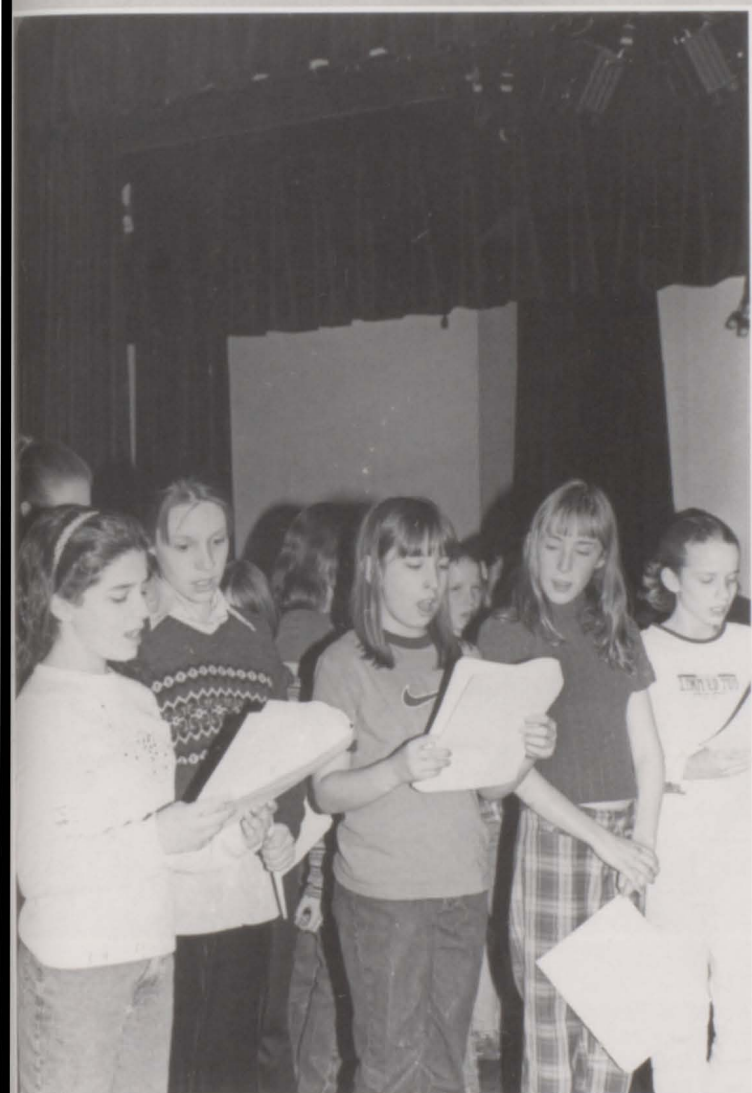

Greg Cummings works hard to show off his skills to these two talented ladies, Sarah McFee and Jen Castle.

Look at all these students hard at work. They sure do sound wonderful.

We're always waiting for the drummers" sighs Stephanie Holowacz and Ashley Mattingly as their fellow Orchestra members practice in the background.

"This song is a breeze" thinks C. Anderson, M. Shew, B. Schimtz, B. Shirkey and C. Holowacz as they master their music for the upcoming concert.

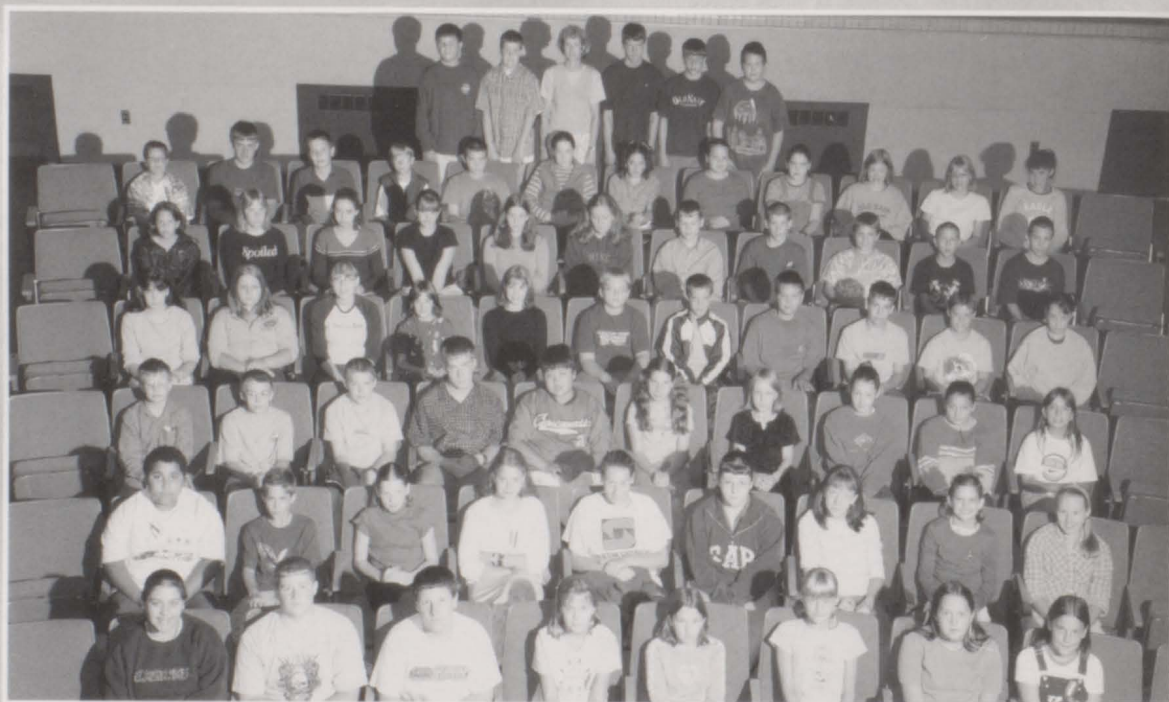

G.Ives tries to impress H. Bucalos as she stands in awe of his great playing ability.

Is it lesson time with Mrs. Cumming and A. Wilcox, or is it a contest to see who can hold the note the longest?

Does M. Nelson, M. Enck, and K. Kellogg always have this good posture or were they carefully placed that way by a yearbook photographer.

Middle School Beyond Greenlawn

These sixth graders are really excited over all the money they raised, with help from Mr. Palmer for the N.Y.C. September 11th tragedy relief fund.

Cheer those B-G Bobcat football players on! These seventh and eighth graders show their spirit.

Sixth grader Ben Laing knows the meaning of success. It starts in the classroom.

Lunch-time is the best time of the day; just look at these eighth graders and you'll agree.

In Mr. Munroe's American History class there is never a dull moment. These seventh graders can attest to that.

COLOPHON

The theme "Beyond the Horizon" was carefully chosen after three meetings during the summer months for the 2002 Echo. An original cover of a picture of a sunset with silhouettes of graduates was chosen at this time but later changed to the cover you see on the front of this yearbook. This was done to save time and money. This year's Echo again contains 144 pages including 16 full color pages. For the first time ever the Yearbook staff used digital imaging in JPEG format, for the sports and clubs sections. Echo 2002 was produced on a PC using Adobe PageMaker 6.5 and a Zip Drive. The finished product cost $15,000 + to produce. We sold 270 copies at a price of $35 dollars each. Much fundraising was done to offset the remainder of expenses.

The 2002 Echo staff greatly appreciates all merchants and area businesses for their support. We wish also to thank Gary Scott for his technical help, and Mr. Ruston for sharing his space.
