YOUR TREASURE CHEST

Make for yourself a treasure
chest,
But not for gems and gold -
Fill it with things more rare
and fine,
As full as it will hold.

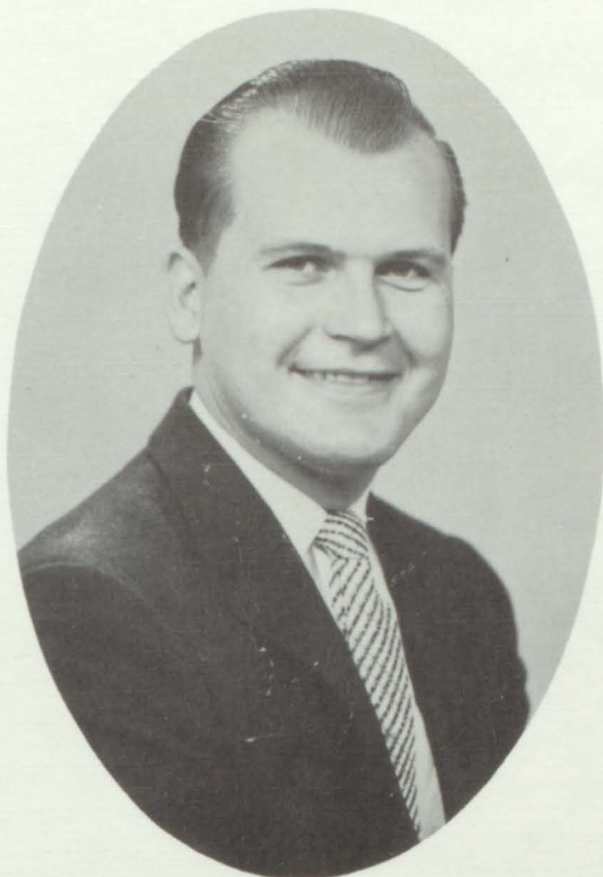

Into it place your kindly
thoughts,
Of friends whom you hold
dear,
The classes, the teachers,
the happy hours,
That fill your life with cheer.

And then if dark days come along,
And your bright prospects
mar,
Open your treasure chest
and see
How very rich you are!

MR. LUBERECKI

MISS LANE

For the patience, helpfulness, and conscientious interest in us, our work and our activities, you have won our highest regard as teachers. The class of 1961 takes great pleasure in dedicating our yearbook to you, our Class Advisors, Miss Lane and Mr. Luberecki.

Yearbook Staff

My thanks to the members of the yearbook staff and all who have helped in any way to make the 1961
"Tiger" a success.

Judy Norris, Editor

It was New Year's Eve 1970 as I entered the Latin Quarter and saw before me the faces of the nine Seniors of 1961. Fond memories floated back to me. June 26, 1961, and as we were leaving Guilford Central School for the last time we vowed to meet again on December 31, 1970. Because of the sad depletion of the Class Treasury, we decided to hold our reunion at the Latin Quarter in New York City. This scene I still remember plainly, our last class meeting as students of G.C.S. Now, almost ten years later, we were together again.

Music, a sweet swing variety, floated through the door, and I realized in a minute that it was "Judy's Swingin' Six," the hottest band this side of New Orleans. The leader, our own Judy Norris. Judy has been acclaimed the greatest clarinetist since Benny Goodman, and her band is tops on Broadway, television, and in leading night clubs. I stood there daydreaming. Suddenly, I was jolted out of my lethargy to hear Judy saying, "Ladies and Gentlemen, the Honorable Jack L. Curtis, Vice President of the United States." Jack, our football captain from high school, is the youngest Vice President in history. Rumor has it that some of the older members of Congress are grooming Jack to run for the Presidency. I think Jack is the man our country needs.

Suddenly, a man stepped up to the mike and began playing a tuba solo. A lady nearby whispered that it was the Secretary of Agriculture. I had to look twice before I realized it was David Randall.

With a great flourish, a woman pranced past me. Her uniform told me it was none other than Miss Lane, Fire Commissioner of the City of New York. Beside her was Mr. Luberecki, also our advisor, now delegate to the United Nations, and United States Champion Hog-Caller. We were glad to see them after all these years.

A small, scholarly, graying man, whom I had noticed several times during the evening, suddenly spoke. "Say, aren't you Dagny Spohn of the chemical firm of Dibble, Dabble, and Phsst? I hear the United Nations was quite pleased with the report on your trip to chemically analyze the star, Alpha Tauri."

"Yes," I replied. "Your voice sounds familiar, but I can't quite place you."

"I'm Stephen Glover."

So this was Stephen Glover, President of Harvard University, and leading educator of the world. Guilford certainly should be proud of Steve.

Just then I was tapped on the shoulder. I turned around to come face to face with Marty Burlison, leading authority on horses and owner of Hialeah Park Raceway in Florida. From Marty I learned that Sue Miller, leading designer for Christian Dior, was unable to fly in from Paris because of an unexpected showing of her spring creations. Too bad Sue had to miss the fun because of the earlier showing.

As I walked toward the dance floor, I spotted Pat Hoffman and Donna Anthony at a nearby table. I guess being head of the New York State Board of Regents is quite a job for Pat. She told me she was still correcting June Regents' papers. After sampling a canape, I complimented Donna on the food. Since Donna is the Chef and co-owner of the famous Brown Derby, she offered to take charge of the cooking. Certainly a credit to the culinary art, Donna.

As the clock struck twelve, Donna, Pat and I, as well as the other members of the Class of 1961, welcomed in the New Year and bid Farewell to 1970.

Class Will

We, the members of the Senior Class of the Guilford Central School, County of Chenango, State of New York, being of sound mind and memory, and having reached an age when we are soon to pass on to higher realms, do hereby make and declare this to be the last will and testament of our class.

To our Superintendent, Mr. Youmans and the Board of Education, we express our thanks for their immediate willingness to administrate to our school needs.

To Mr. Kozlowski, our principal, we bestow our heartfelt gratitude for his understanding and patience in guiding us through our difficulties.

To the Faculty, we convey our sympathy. How did they put up with us as long as they did? Seriously though, our thanks for all the guidance and help they have given us.

To the Juniors, who will become Seniors, (we hope), we bequeath all the mistakes, blunders, inaccuracies, and lapses, committed by us during the four years of our high school life.

To the Sophomores, we leave our lasting friendship, loyalty, and talents.

To the Freshmen, we bequeath our good will and ability to persevere through all unfavorable circumstances.

The members of our illustrious class have many individual bequests, which they leave to the following individuals according to this last will and testament.

Marty Burlison leaves her even disposition to Bobby Gould.

Jack Curtis leaves his dislike of girls (?) to Richie Anthony.

Steve Glover wills his giggles to the ninth grade girls who have run out of them.

Pat Hoffman wills her used clarinet reeds to Jackie Hill.

Jackie, see if you can put them back in the reed machine.

Susie Miller wills her love of teachers (?) to Bobby Rapheal.

Judy Norris leaves everything to Ingrid Goodwin.

David Randall wills his knack for being so noisy to Leon Burlison, who is so quiet you'd never know he was around.

Dagny Sophn leaves her cat to Linda Manwarren, who loves all animals and little children.

Miss Lane wills her Irish temper to her fellow Pennsylvania teachers, and Mr. Luberecki leaves his gentle and patient ways to the incoming Seniors.

We hereby declare all previous promises, wills or codicils, made by our class, null and void.

We appoint as sole executer of this will, our beloved principal, Mr. Kozlowski.

Witness our hand and seal on this, the 26th day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and sixty-one.

Signed,

Class of 1961

GUILFORD'S ALMA MATER

Guilford High, your praise we love to sing

Guilford High, what memories you bring

Neath the gay maroon and white

Forward, onward, to the fight

For Guilford High, we pledge our best to thee,

Here's our hand, our love and loyalty,

So lead us on to victory,

Dear Old Guilford High!
